The value of the goods and the damages, or damages only as the case may be shall be ascertained in such manner and subject to the filing of such particulars as a Judge may direct before judgment in respect of that part of the claim.
8. If no appearance is entered within the time prescribed in the originating process in a claim for recovery of land or if appearance is entered but the defence is limited to part only, a claimant may apply to a Judge for judgment stating that the person whose title is asserted in the originating process shall recover possession of the land, or of that part of it to which the defence does not apply.
9. Where in an originating process for recovery of land a claimant claims mesne profits, arrears of rent, damages for breach of contract or wrong or injury to the premises, he may apply for judgment as in Rule 8 of this Order for the land, and may proceed to prove the other claims.
10. In any case to which Rules 3-8 of this Order do not apply and the defendant or all of several defendants fail to appear, but by reason of payment, satisfaction, abatement of nuisance, or any other reason, it is unnecessary for a claimant to proceed, he may apply to a Judge for judgment for costs;

Provided that such application shall be filed and served in the manner in which service of the originating process was effected or in such manner as a Judge shall direct.

11. Where judgment is entered pursuant to any of the preceding rules of this Order, a Judge may set aside or vary such judgment on just terms upon an application shall by the defendant. The application shall be made within a reasonable time, show a good defence to the claim and a just cause for the default.

12. In all claims not specifically provided for under this Order, where the party served with the originating process does not appear within the time prescribed in the originating process, a claimant may proceed as if appearance had been entered.
13. Notice of any application under this order shall be served on the other party.

Order 11 Summary judgment

1. Where a claimant believes that there is no defence to his claim, he shall file with his originating process the statement of claim, the exhibits, the dispositions of his witnesses and an application for summary judgment which application shall be supported by an affidavit stating the grounds for his belief and a written brief in respect thereof.
2. A claimant shall deliver to the Registrar as many copies of all the processes and documents referred to in Rule 1 of this order, as there are defendants.
3. Service of all the processes and documents referred to in Rule 1 of this Order shall be effected in the manner provided under Order 7.
4. Where a party served with the processes and documents referred to in Rule 1 of this Order intends to defend the suit he shall, not later than the time prescribed for defence, file:
 - (a) his statement of defence,
 - (b) depositions of his witnesses,
 - (c) exhibits to be used in his defence and
 - (d) a written brief in reply to the application for summary judgment.
5.
 - (1) Where it appears to a Judge that a defendant has a good defence and ought to be permitted to defend the claim he may be granted leave to defend.
 - (2) Where it appears to a judge that the defendant has no good defence the Judge may thereupon enter judgment for a claimant.
 - (3) Where it appears to a Judge that the defendant has a good defence to part of the claim but no defence to other parts of the claim, the Judge may thereupon enter judgment for that part of the claim to which there is no defence and grant leave to defend that part to which there is a defence.
6. Where there are several defendants and it appears to a Judge that any of the defendants has a good defence and ought to be permitted to defend the claim and other defendants have no good defence and ought not to be permitted to defend the former may be permitted to defend and the Judge shall enter judgment against the latter.
7. Where provision is made for written briefs under these rules, each party shall be at liberty to advance before a Judge oral submission to expatiate his written brief.

Order 12 Application for account

1. Where in an originating process a claimant seeks an account under Order 4 Rule 5 or where the claim involves taking an account, if the defendant either fails to appear, or after appearance fails to satisfy a judge that there is a preliminary question to be tried, the judge shall, on application make an order for the proper accounts, with all necessary inquiries and directions.
2. An application for account shall be supported by an affidavit filed on a claimant's behalf, stating concisely the grounds of his claim to an account. The application may be made at any time after the time prescribed for defence.
3. Where an order is made for account under this Order, the account may be taken by a Judge or a Referee appointed by the Judge.

Order 13 Parties Generally

1. All persons may be joined in one action as claimants in whom any right to relief is alleged to exist whether jointly or severally and judgment may be given for such claimant(s) as may be found to be entitled to relief and for such relief as he or they may be entitled to, without any amendment.
2. Where an action has been commenced in the name of the wrong person as claimant or where it is doubtful whether it has been commenced in the name of the right claimant, a Judge may order the substitution or addition of any other person as claimant on such terms as may be just.
3. Where in commencing an action any person has been wrongly or improperly included as a claimant and a defendant has set up a counterclaim or set-off, such defendant may establish his set-off or counterclaim as against the parties other than a claimant so included, notwithstanding the inclusion of such claimant or any proceeding based thereon.
4. Any person may be joined as defendant against whom the right to any relief is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally or in the alternative. Judgment may be given against one or more of the defendants as may be found to be liable, according to their respective liabilities, without any amendment.
5. Where an action has been instituted against a wrong defendant or where the name of a defendant has been incorrectly stated a judge may upon application order a substitution or addition of any person as defendant or correction of any such name on any term as may be just.
6. (1) It shall not be necessary that every defendant shall be interested as to all the reliefs prayed for, or as to every cause of action included in any proceeding against him.
(2) A Judge upon considering the defence filed by any defendant may on application by that defendant make such order as may appear just to prevent him from being embarrassed or put to expense by being required to attend any proceedings in which he may have no interest.
7. A claimant may at his option join as parties to the same action all or any of the persons severally, or jointly and severally, liable on any one contract, including parties to bills of exchange and promissory notes.
8. Where a claimant is in doubt as to the person from whom he is entitled to redress, he may, in such manner as hereinafter mentioned, or as may be prescribed by any special order, join two or more defendants, to the intent that the question as to which, if any, of the defendants is liable and to what extent, may be determined as between all parties.
9. Persons under legal disability may sue by their guardians or defend by guardians appointed for that purpose.
10. Where any person's name is to be used in any action as guardian of a person under legal disability or other party or as relator, a written authority for that purpose signed by that person shall be filed in the registry.
11. Trustees, executors and administrators may sue and be sued on behalf of or as representing the property or estate of which they are trustees or representatives, without joining any of the persons beneficially interested in the trust or estate, and shall be considered as representing such person, but a Judge may, at any stage of the proceedings order any of such persons to be made parties in addition to or in lieu of the previously existing parties. This rule shall apply to trustees, executors and administrators in proceedings to enforce a security by foreclosure or otherwise
12. (1) Where there are numerous person having the same interest in one suit, one or more of such persons may sue or be sued on behalf of or for the benefit of all persons so interested.
(2) Where there are numerous persons having the same interest in one suit and they seek to defend the action, a Judge may allow one or more of such persons to defend the action on behalf or for the benefit of all persons so interested.
13. (1) Where in any proceedings concerning;
 - (a) the administration of an estate or
 - (b) property subject to a trust or
 - (c) land held under customary law as family or community property or
 - (d) the construction of any written instrument, including a statute, a Judge is satisfied that:
 - (i) the person, the class or some members of the class interested cannot be ascertained or cannot readily be ascertained;

- (ii) the person, the class or some members of the class interested if ascertained cannot be found;
 - (iii) though the person or the class and the members thereof can be ascertained and found; it is expedient for the purpose of efficient procedure that one or more persons be appointed to represent that person or class or member of the class, the Judge may make the appointment. The decision of the Judge in the proceedings shall be binding on the person or class of persons so represented.
 - (2) Notice of appointment made by a Judge under this rule and all processes filed in court shall be served on a person(s) so appointed.
 - (3) If in any proceedings mentioned in sub-rule 1 of this Rule, several persons having the same interest in relation to the matter to be determined attend the hearing by separate Legal Practitioners, then unless the judge considers that the circumstances justify separate representation, not more than one set of costs of the hearing shall be allowed to these persons, and the judgment or order shall be framed accordingly.
 - (4) In this Rule, the word "class" includes the persons recognized by Customary Law as members of a family or as members of a land owing community.
- 14. Where in any proceedings mentioned in sub-rule (1) of Rule 13 of this Order, a compromise is proposed and some of the absent persons who are interested in or may be affected by the compromise are not parties to the proceedings (including unborn or unascertained persons) but where;
- (i) where there are some other persons having the same interest before the court who assent to the compromise or on whose behalf the court sanctions the compromise or
 - (ii) the absent persons are represented by a person under Rule 13 of this Order who so assents;
- a Judge if satisfied that the compromise will be for the benefit of the absent persons and that it is expedient to exercise this power, may approve the compromise and order that such compromise shall be binding on the absent persons, and they shall be bound accordingly, except where the order has been obtained by fraud or non-disclosure of material facts.
- 15. (1) If in any proceedings it appears to a judge that any deceased person who was interested in the proceedings has no legal representative, the Judge may proceed in the absence of any person representing the estate of the deceased person, or may appoint some person to represent his estate for the purpose of the proceeding, on such notice to such persons (if any) as the Judge shall deem fit, either specifically or generally by public advertisement, and the order so made and any order consequent thereon shall bind the estate of the deceased person in the same manner in every respect as if a duly constituted legal personal representative of the deceased had been a party to the proceedings.
- (2) Where a sole or sole surviving claimant or defendant in a proceedings dies and the cause of action survives but the person entitled to proceed fails to proceed, a Judge may on the application of either the deceased's Legal Practitioner or the opposing party order any person to take the place of the said deceased and proceed with the suit.
 - (3) In default of such application or where the person substituted fails to proceed, judgment may be entered for the defendant or as the case may be for the person against whom the proceedings might have been continued.
- 16. (1) No proceedings shall be defeated by reason of misjoinder or non joinder of parties, and a Judge may deal with the matter in controversy so far as regards the rights and interest of the parties actually before him.
- (2) A Judge may at any stage of the proceedings, either upon or without the application of either party, and on such terms as may appear to the judge to be just, order that the names of any parties improperly joined be struck out.
 - (3) A Judge may order that the names of any party who ought to have been joined or whose presence before the court is necessary to effectually and completely adjudicate upon and settle the questions involved in the proceedings be added.
 - (4) No person under legal disability shall be added as a claimant suing without a guardian and no person shall be added as the guardian of a claimant under legal disability without his own consent in writing.
 - (5) Every party whose name is added as defendant shall be served with the originating processes or notice in the manner prescribed in these rules or in such manner as may be prescribed by a Judge and the proceedings against such person shall be deemed to have begun on the service of such originating processes or notice.

17. (1) Any application to add or strike out or substitute or vary the name of a claimant or defendant may be made to a Judge by motion.
 - (2) Where the application is to add a claimant or a defendant, the application shall be accompanied by the statement of claim or defence as the case may be, all the exhibits intended to be used and the depositions of all the witnesses;

Provided that where the application is to substitute a deceased party with another person the application may not be accompanied by the documents specified above
18. Where a defendant is added or substituted the originating process shall be amended accordingly and the claimant shall unless otherwise ordered by a Judge file an amended originating process and cause the new defendant to be served in the same manner as the original defendant.
19. (1) Where it appears to a Judge that the any person not a party in the proceedings may bear eventual liability either in whole or in part, the Judge may upon an ex parte application allow that person to be joined as a Third Party by any of the defendants. The application shall state the grounds for the applicant's belief that such Third Party may bear eventual liability.
 - (2) The order and existing processes shall be served on the Third Party within the time prescribed for delivering the defence.
20. Where a party is joined to any proceeding as a Third Party he may after service enter appearance within 8 days or within 30 days if he resides or carries on business outside jurisdiction or within such further time as a Judge may order.
21. If a Third Party duly served with the order and all existing processes does not enter an appearance or makes default in filing any pleading, he shall be deemed to admit the validity of and shall be bound by any judgment given in the action, whether by consent or otherwise.
22. Party joined as a Third Party in any proceedings may join any other party in the same manner as he was joined and the expression "Third Party" shall apply to and include every person so joined.
23. A defendant may in his pleading make a claim against a co-defendant.

II

Action against firms and persons carrying on business in names other than their own

24. Any two or more person claiming or alleged to be liable as partners and doing business within the jurisdiction may sue or be sued in the name of the firms, if any, of which they were partners when the cause of action arose and party to an action may in such case apply to the judge for a statement of the names and addresses of the persons who were partners in the firm when the cause of action arose, to be furnished in such manner, and verified on oath or otherwise as the judge may direct.
25. (1) When an originating process is issued by partners in the name of their firm, the claimants or Legal Practitioners shall, on demand in writing by or on behalf of any defendant declare in writing the names and residential addresses of all the persons constituting the firm on whose behalf the action is brought.
 - (2) Where the claimants or their Legal Practitioners fail to comply with such demand, all proceedings in the action may, upon an application for that purpose, be stayed upon such terms as judge may direct.
 - (3) Where the names of the partners are so declared, the suit shall proceed in the same manner and the same consequences in all respects shall follow as if they had been named as claimants in the originating process provided that the proceedings may continue in the name of the firm.
26. (1) Where persons are sued as partners in the name of their firm, they shall appear individually in their own names; but all subsequent proceedings shall continue in the name of the firm.
 - (2) Where an originating process is served upon a person having the control or management of the partnership business no appearance by him shall be necessary unless he is a member of the firm sued.
27. The above rules in this Part shall apply to proceedings between a firm and one or more its partners and between firms having one or more partners in common, provided such firm or firms carry on business within the jurisdiction.

28. Any person carrying on business within the jurisdiction in a name or style other than his own name may be sued in such name or style as if it were a firm name, and, so far as the nature of the case will permit, all rules relating to proceedings against firms shall apply.

III

Change of parties by death or otherwise etc.

29. No proceedings shall abate by reason of death or bankruptcy of any of the parties, if the cause of action survives and shall not become defective by the assignment, creation or devolution of any estate or title pendente lite, and, whether the cause or action survives or not, there shall be no abatement by reason of the death of either party between the finding on issues of fact and judgment, but judgment may in such case be entered notwithstanding the death.
30. (1) Where by reason of death or bankruptcy, or any other event occurring after the commencement of a proceeding and causing a change or transmission of interest or liability, or by reason of any person interested coming into existence after the commencement of the proceeding, it becomes necessary or desirable that any person not already a party should be made a party or that any person already a party should be made a party in another capacity, an order that the proceedings shall be carried on between the continuing parties and such new party or parties may be obtained ex parte upon an allegation of such change, or transmission of interest or liability, or of any such person interested having come into existence.
- (2) An order obtained under this rule shall be served upon the continuing party or parties, or their Legal Practitioner(s) and also upon such new party unless the person making the application is the new party
- (3) Every person served who is not already a party to the proceedings shall where applicable enter an appearance thereto within the same time and in the same manner as if he had been served with the originating process. He shall thereupon be served with the originating and all existing processes.
- (4) Any party served under this rule who was not already a party to the proceedings shall file his pleadings and other documents as if he had been an original party to the proceedings.
31. In case of an assignment, creation or devolution of any estate or title pendente lite, the cause or matter may be continued by or against the person to or upon whom such estate or title has come or devolved.
32. Where any person who is under no legal disability or being under any legal disability but having a guardian in the proceedings is served with an order under Rule 30, such person may apply to a Judge to discharge or vary such order at any time within 14 days from the service of the order.
33. Where any person under any legal disability and not having a guardian in the proceedings is served with an order under Rule 30, such a person may apply to a Judge to discharge or vary such order at anytime within 14 days from the appointment of a guardian for such party, and such period of 14 days has expired, such order shall have no force or effect as against the person under legal disability

IV

Legal Practitioner or Agents

34. Where by these rules any act may be done by any party in any proceedings, such act may be done either by the party in person, or by his Legal Practitioner, or by his agent (unless an agent is expressly barred under these rules).

Order 14

Joinder of Causes of Action

1. Subject to the following rules of this Order, the claimant may unite in the same action several causes of action; but if it appears that they cannot be conveniently tried or disposed of together a Judge may order separate trials of any such causes of action or may make such order as may be necessary or expedient for the separate disposal thereof.
2. (1) An action for recovery of land may be joined with an action for declaration of title, mesne profit or arrears of rent, damages for breach of any contract under which the land or any part thereof is held, or for any wrong or injury to the premises.

- (2) An action for foreclosure or redemption may be joined with a claim for delivery of possession of the mortgaged property and a claim for payment of principal money or interest secured by or any other relief in respect of the mortgage of or charge on such land.
3. Claims by or against an executor or administrator as such may be joined with claims by or against him personally provided the last-mentioned claims are alleged to arise with reference to the estate in respect of which the claimant or defendant sues or is sued as executor or administrator.
4. Claims by claimant jointly may be joined with claims by them or any of them separately against the same defendant.

Order 15
Pleadings

1. (1) A statement of claim shall include the relief or remedy to which a claimant claims to be entitled
- (2) A defendant shall file his statement of defence, set off or counterclaim, if any, not later than 42 days after service on him of the claimant's originating process and accompanying documents. A counterclaim shall have the same effect as a cross action, so as to enable the court pronounce a final judgment in the same proceedings. A set-off must be specifically pleaded.
- (3) A claimant shall within 14 days of service of the statement of defence and counterclaim if any, file his reply, if any, to such defence or counterclaim:

Provided that where a defendant sets up a counter-claim, if a claimant or any other person named as part to such counter claim contends that the claim thereby raised ought not to be disposed of by way of counterclaim, but in an independent proceeding, a Judge may at any time order that such counter claim be excluded.
2. Every pleading shall contain a statement in a summary form of the material facts on which the party pleading relies for his claim or defence, as the case may be, but not the evidence by which they are to be proved and shall, when necessary be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively. Dates, sums and numbers shall be expressed in figures. Pleadings shall be signed by a Legal Practitioner or by the party if he sues or defends in person.
3. (1) In all cases in which the party pleading relies on any misrepresentation, fraud, breach of trust, willful default, or undue influence and in all other cases, in which particulars may be necessary, particulars (with dates and items if necessary) shall be stated in the pleadings.
- (2) In an action for libel or slander if the claimant alleges that the words or matter complained of were used in a defamatory sense other than their ordinary meaning, he shall give particulars of the facts and matters on which he relies in support of his allegation.
4. An application for a further and better statement of the nature of the claim or defence, or further and better particulars of any matter stated in any pleading requiring particulars shall be made to a Judge at the first pre-trial conference. The Judge may grant such application upon such terms as may be Just.
5. (1) Every allegation of fact in any pleadings if not specifically denied in the pleadings of the opposite party shall betaken as admitted except as against a person under legal disability.
- (2) A general denial in any pleadings shall not operate as denial of any specific fact in the pleadings of the opposing party.
6. Each party shall specify distinctly in his pleadings any condition precedent, the performance or occurrence of which is intended to be contested
7. (1) All grounds of defence or reply which makes an action reply; not maintainable or if not raised will take the opposite party by surprise or will raise issues of facts not arising out of the preceding to be pleadings shall be specifically pleaded.
- (2) Where a party raises any ground which makes a transaction void or voidable or such matters as fraud, Limitation Law, release, payment, performance, facts showing insufficiency in contract or illegality either by any enactment or by common law, he shall specifically plead same

8. No pleading shall raise any new ground of claim or contain any allegation of fact inconsistent with the previous pleadings of the party pleading the same
9. A party may by his pleadings join issues upon the pleadings of the opposing party and such joinder of issues shall operate as a denial of every material allegation of fact in the pleading upon which issue is joined except any fact which the party may be willing to admit.
10. Wherever the contents of any documents are material it shall be sufficient in any pleading to state the effect thereof as briefly as possible, without setting out the whole or any part thereof, unless the precise words of the document or any part thereof are material.
11. Wherever it is material to allege notice to any person of any fact, matter or thing, it shall be sufficient to allege such notice as a fact, unless the form or the precise terms of such notice or the circumstances from which such notice is to be inferred are material.
12. Wherever any contract or any relation between any persons is to be implied from a series of letters or conversations, or other wise from a number of circumstances, it shall be sufficient to allege such contract or relation as a fact, and to refer generally to such letters, conversations or circumstances without setting them out in detail. If in such case the person so pleading desires to rely in the alternative upon more contracts or relations than one as to be implied from such circumstances, he may state the same in the alternative.
13. A party may not allege in any pleadings any matter or fact the law presumes in his favour or as to which the burden of proof lies upon the other side, unless the same has first been specifically denied.
14. In every case in which the cause of action is a stated or settled account the same shall be alleged with particulars but in every case in which a statement of account is relied on by way of evidence or admission of any other cause of action which is pleaded, the same shall not be alleged in the pleadings.
15. No technical objection shall be raised to any pleading on the ground of any alleged want of form.
16. A Judge may at the pre-trial conference in any proceedings order to be struck out or amended, any matter in any indorsement or Pleading which may be unnecessary or scandalous or which may tend to prejudice, embarrass or delay the fair trial of the action; and may in any such case, if the Judge shall deem fit, order costs of the application to be paid as between Legal Practitioner and client.
 - (1) Wherever it is material to allege malice, fraudulent intention, knowledge or other condition of the mind of any person, it shall be sufficient to allege the same as a fact without setting out the circumstances from which the same is to be inferred.
 - (2) Where in an action for libel or slander the defendant pleads that any of the words or matters complained of are fair comment on a matter of public interest or were published upon a privileged occasion, the claimant shall, if he intends to allege that the defendant was actuated by express malice, deliver a reply giving particulars of the facts and matters from which such malice is to be inferred.
 - (3) Where in an action for libel or slander the defendant alleges that in so far as the words complained of consist of statement of fact, they are true in substance and in fact, and in so far as they consist of expressions of opinion, they are fair comment on a matter of public interest, or pleads to the like effect, he shall give particulars stating which of the facts and matters he relies on in support of the allegation that the words are true.
 - (1) The Judge may at any stage of the proceedings order to be struck out or amended any pleading or the indorsement of any writ in the action, or anything in any pleading or in the indorsement, on the ground that:
 - (a) it discloses no reasonable cause of action or defence, as the case may be; or
 - (b) it is scandalous, frivolous or vexatious; or
 - (c) it may prejudice, embarrass or delay the fair trial of the action; or
 - (d) it is otherwise an abuse of the process of the Court;and may order the action to be stayed or dismissed or judgment to be entered accordingly, as the case may be.
 - (2) No evidence shall be admissible on application under paragraph (1) (a).
 - (3) This rule shall, so far as practicable, apply to an originating summons and a petition as if the summons or petition, as the case may be, were a pleading.

(4) No proceedings shall be open to objection on the ground that only a declaratory Judgment or order is sought thereby and a Judge may make binding declaration of right whether any consequential relief is or could be claimed or not.

19. (1) Where a pleading subsequent to reply is not ordered, then, at the expiration of 7 days from the service of the defence or reply (if a reply has been filed) pleadings shall be deemed closed.

(2) Where a pleading subsequent to reply is ordered, and the party who has been ordered or given leave to file the same fails to do so within the period limited for that purpose, then, at the expiration of the period so limited the pleadings shall be deemed closed.

Provided that this rule shall not apply to a defence to counterclaim and unless the clamant files a defence to counterclaim, the statements of fact contained in such counterclaim shall at the expiration of 14 days from the service thereof or of such time (if any) as may by order be allowed for filing of a defence thereto be deemed to be admitted, but the judge may at any subsequent time give leave to the claimant to file a defence to counterclaim.

Order 16 Statement of Claim

1. (1) Every statement of claim, defence or counter claim shall state specifically the relief claimed either singly or in the alternative, and it shall not be necessary to ask for general or other relief, which may be given as a Judge may think just as if it had been asked for.

(2) Where the clamant seeks relief in respect of several distinct claims or causes of complaint founded upon separate and distinct grounds, they shall be stated, as far as may be, separately and distinctly. The same rule shall apply where the defendant relies upon several distinct grounds of defence, set-off or counterclaim founded upon separate and distinct facts.

2. Whenever a statement of claim is filed, the claimant may alter, modify or extend his claim without any amendment of the indorsement of the writ:

Provided that the claimant may not completely change his cause of action indorsed on the writ without amending the writ.

Order 17 Defence and Counter-Claim

1. The statement of defence shall be a statement in summary form and shall be supported by copies of documentary evidence, list of witnesses and their written statements on oath.

2. When a party in any pleading denies an allegation of fact in the previous pleading of the opposite party, he shall not do so evasively, but answer the point of substance. If an allegation is made with diverse circumstances, it shall not be sufficient to deny it along with those circumstances.

3. (1) In an action for debt or liquidated demand in money, a mere denial of the debt shall not be sufficient defence.

(2) In an action for money had and received, a defence in denial must deny the receipt of the money or the existence of those facts which are alleged to make such receipt by the defendant a receipt to the use of the claimant.

(3) In an action for goods sold and delivered, the defence must deny the order or contract, the delivery, or the amount claimed.

(4) In an action upon a bill of exchange, promissory note or cheque, a defence in denial must deny some matter of fact, e.g. the drawing, making, indorsing, accepting, presenting or notice of dishonour of the bill or note.

4. If either party wishes to deny the right of any other party to claim as executor, or a trustee or in any representative or other alleged capacity, or the alleged constitution of any partnership firm, he shall deny the same specifically.

5. No denial or defence shall be necessary as to damages claimed or their amount; they are deemed to be in issue in all cases, unless expressly admitted.

6. Where any defendant seeks to rely upon any ground as supporting a right of set-off or counter claim, he shall in his defence state specifically that he does so by way of supporting a right of set off or counterclaim
7. Where a defendant by his defence sets up any counter claim which raises questions between himself and the claimant along with any other persons, he shall add to the title of his defence a further title similar to the title in a statement of claim, setting forth the names of all persons who, if such counterclaim were to be enforced by cross action would be defendants to such cross action, and shall deliver his defence to such of them as are parties to the action within the period which he is required to deliver it to the claimant
8. Where any such person as in Rule 7 of this Order is not a party to the action he shall be summoned to appear by being served with a copy of the defence and counterclaim, and such service shall be regulated by the same rules as those governing the service of the originating process, and every defence and counter claim so served shall be indorsed in Form 12 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require.
9. Any person not already a party to the action, who is served with a defence and counterclaim as aforesaid, must appear thereto as if he had been served with an originating process to appear in an action.
10. Any person not already a party to the action, who is named in a defence as party to a counterclaim thereby made, shall deliver a defence in a mode and manner prescribed under this Order and the provisions of the Order shall apply to such a person.
11. If, in any case in which the defendant sets up a counterclaim, the action of the claimant is stayed, discontinued or dismissed, the counterclaim may nevertheless be proceeded with.
12. Where in an action, a set off or counterclaim is established as a defence against the claimant's claim, the Judge may, if the balance is in favour of the of the defendant, give judgment for the defendant for such balance, or may otherwise adjudge to the defendant such relief as he may be entitled to upon the merits of the case.
13. (1) Any ground of defence which arises after the action has been filed, but before the defendant has delivered his defence, and before the time limited for doing so has expired, may be raised by the defendant in his defence, either alone or together with other grounds of defence.
(2) If after a defence has been delivered along with a set-off counterclaim, any basis for answer or ground of defence arises to any such set-off or counterclaim respectively, it may be raised by the claimant in his reply (in the case of a set-off) or defence to counterclaim, either alone or together with any other ground of reply or defence to counterclaim.
14. Where any ground of defence arises after the defendant has delivered a defence, or after the time limited for his doing so has expired the defendant may, and where any ground of defence to any set-off or counterclaim arises after reply, or after the time limited for delivery of a reply has expired, the claimant may, within 8 days after such ground of defence has arisen or at any subsequent time by leave of a Judge deliver a further defence or further reply, as the case may be setting forth the same.
15. Whenever any defendant in his defence or in any further defence pursuant to Rule 14 of this Order alleges any ground of defence which has arisen after the commencement of the action, the claimant may concede to such defence (which concession may be on Form 13 with such modification as circumstances may require) and may thereupon obtain judgment up to the time of the pleading of such defence, unless the Judge either before or after the delivery of such concession otherwise orders.
16. A respondent to an originating summons shall file a counter to affidavit together with all the exhibits he intends to rely upon and a written address within 21 days after service of the originating summons.

Order 18 Reply

1. Where the claimant desires to make a reply, he shall file it within 14 days from the service of the defence.
2. Where a counterclaim is pleaded, a reply thereto is called a defence to counterclaim and shall be subject to the rules applicable to defences.

Order 19 Admissions

1. Any party to a proceeding may give notice by his pleading or otherwise in writing, that he admits the truth of the whole or of facts any part of the case of any other party.

 - (1) Either party may, not later than 7 days before the first pre-trial conference, by notice in writing filed and served, require any other party to admit any document and the party so served shall not later than 4 days after service give notice of admission or non-admission of the document, failing which he shall be deemed to have admitted it unless a judge otherwise orders.
 - (2) When a party decides to challenge the authenticity of any document, he shall not later than 7 days of service of that document give notice that he does not admit the document and requires it to be proved at the trial.
 - (3) Where a party gives notice of non-admission and the document is proved at the trial, the cost of proving the document, which shall not be less than a sum of five thousand naira, shall be paid by the party who has challenged it, unless at the trial or hearing the Judge shall certify that there were reasonable grounds for not admitting the authenticity of the document.
 - (1) Either party may not later than 7 days before the first pre-trial conference by notice in writing filed and served require any other party to admit any specific fact or facts mentioned in the notice, and the party so served shall not later than 4 days after service give notice of admission or non-admission of the fact or facts failing which he shall be deemed to have admitted it unless a Judge otherwise orders.
 - (2) Any admission made pursuant to such notice shall be deemed to be made only for the purposes of that particular proceedings and not as an admission to be used against the party or any other party than the party giving the notice.
 - (3) Where there is a refusal or neglect to admit the same within 4 days after service of such notice or within such further time as may be allowed by the Judge, the cost of proving such fact or facts which shall not be less than a sum of five thousand naira, shall be paid by the party so refusing or neglecting whatever the result of the proceedings, unless the Judge certifies that the refusal to admit was reasonable or unless the Judge at any time otherwise order or directs.
4. The Judge may, on application, at a pre-trial conference or at any other stage of the proceedings where admissions of facts have been made, either on the pleadings or otherwise, make such orders or give such judgment as upon such admissions a party may be entitled to, without waiting for the determination of any other question between the parties.
5. Where a notice to admit or produce comprises documents that are not necessary, the cost occasioned thereby which shall not be less than five thousand naira shall be borne the party giving such notice.

Order 20
Default of pleading

1. If the claim is only for a debt or liquidated demand, and the defendant does not within the time allowed for the purpose, file a defence, the claimant may, at the expiration of such time, apply for final judgment for the amount claimed with costs.
2. When in any such action as in Rule 1 of this Order there are several defendants, if one of them makes default as mentioned in Rule 1 of this Order, the claimant may apply for final judgment against the defendants making default and issue execution upon such judgment without prejudice to his right to proceed with his action against the other defendants.
3. If the claimant's claim be for pecuniary damages or for detention of goods with or without a claim for pecuniary damages only, and the defendant or all the defendants, if more than one, make default as mentioned in Rule 1 of this Order, the claimant may apply to a Judge for interlocutory judgment against the defendant or defendants and the value of the goods and the damages, or the damages only as the case may be, shall ascertained in any way which the Judge may order.
4. When in any such action as in Rule 3 of this order there are several defendants, if one or more of them make default as mentioned in Rule 1 of this Order, the claimant may apply to a Judge for interlocutory judgment against the defendant or defendants so making default and proceed with his action against the others. In such case the value and amount of damages against the defendant making default shall be assessed at the trial of the action or issues therein against the other defendants, unless the Judge shall otherwise order.
5. Where the claim is for debt or liquidated demand and also for pecuniary damages or for detention of goods with or without a claim for pecuniary damages and includes a liquidated demand and any defendant makes default as mentioned in Rule 1, the claimant may apply to a judge for final judgment for the debt or liquidated demand, and may also apply for interlocutory judgment for the value of the goods and damages, or the damages, or the damages only as the case may be, and proceed as mentioned in Rules 3 and 4.

6. In an action for the recovery of land, if the defendant makes default as mentioned in Rule 1, the claimant may apply for a judgment that the person whose title is asserted in the writ of summons shall recover possession of the land with his costs.
7. Where the claimant has indorsed a claim for mesne profits or arrears of rent in respect of the premises claimed, or any part of profits, them, or damages for breach of contract or wrong or injury to the premises claimed upon a writ for recovery of land, if the defendant makes default as mentioned in Rule 1, or if there be more than one defendant, some or one of the defendants make such default, the claimant may apply for final judgment against the defaulting defendant or defendants and proceed as mentioned in Rules 3 and 4.
8. If the claimant's claim is for a debt or liquidated demand or for pecuniary damages only, or for detention of goods with or without a claim for pecuniary damages, or for any such matters, or for the recovery of land, and the defendant files a defence which purports to offer an answer to part only of the claimant's alleged cause of action, the claimant may apply for judgment, final or interlocutory, as the case may be, for the part unanswered;

Provided that the unanswered part consists of a separate cause of action or is severable from the rest, as in the case of part of a debt or liquidated demand:

Provided also that where there is a counterclaim, execution on any such judgment as above mentioned in respect of the claimant's claim shall not issue without leave of the Judge.

9. In all actions other than those in the preceding rules of this Order, if the defendant makes default in filling a defence, the claimant may apply to Judge for judgment, and such judgment shall be given upon the statement of claim as the Judge shall consider the claimant to be entitled to.
10. Where in any such action as mentioned in Rule 9 of this Order, there are several defendants, if one of such defendants makes such default as aforesaid, the claimant may apply for judgment against the defendant so making default, and proceed against the other defendants.
11. In any case in which issues arises in a proceeding other than between claimant and defendant, if any party to any such issue makes default in filling any pleading, the opposite party may apply to a Judge for such judgment, if any, as upon the pleadings he may appear to be entitled to, and the Judge may order judgment to be entered accordingly or may make such other order as may be necessary to do justice between the parties.
12. Any judgment by default whether under this Order or under any Order of these Rules shall be final and remain valid and may only be set aside upon application to a Judge on grounds of fraud, non-service or lack of jurisdiction upon such terms as the court may deem fit.

Order 21

Payment into and out of court

1.
 - (1) Where after service in any proceeding for debt or damages, a defendant envisages an intention to pay money into court in respect of the proceeding, he shall notify the Chief Registrar who will thereupon direct him to pay the money into an interest yielding account in a commercial bank and he shall file the teller for such payment with the Chief Registrar.
 - (2) Where a teller for payment is filed with the Chief Registrar, he shall forthwith give notice of the payment to the claimant who may apply to a Judge for an order to withdraw the amount so paid.
 - (3) Where a defence of tender before action is set up, the sum of money alleged to have been tendered shall be brought into court.
 - (4) The defendant may without leave give a written notice to the Registrar of an intention to increase the amount of any sum paid into court.
 - (5) Where the money is paid into court in satisfaction of one or more of several causes of action, the notice shall specify the cause or causes of action in respect of which payment is made and the sum paid in respect of each such cause of action unless a Judge otherwise directs.
 - (6) The notice shall be in Form 14 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require. The receipt of the notice shall be acknowledged in writing by the claimant within 3 days. The notice may be modified or withdrawn or delivered in an amended form by leave of a judge upon such terms as may be just.
 - (7) Where money is paid into court with denial of liability the claimant may proceed with the action in respect of the claim and if he succeeds, the amount paid shall be applied so far as is necessary in satisfaction of the claim, and the balance, if any, shall on the order of a Judge be repaid to the defendant.

Where the defendant succeeds in respect of such claim, the whole amount paid into court shall be repaid to him on the order of a Judge.

 - (1) Where money is paid into court under Rule 1, the claimant may within 14 days of the receipt of the notice of payment into Court, or where more than one payment into court has been made, within 14 days of the receipt of the notice of the last payment into court, accept the whole sum or any one or more the specific sum in satisfaction of the cause or causes of action to which the specified sum or sums relate by giving notice to the defendant in Form 15 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require and thereupon shall be entitled to receive payment of the accepted sum or sums in satisfaction as aforesaid.
 - (2) Payment shall be made to the claimant or on his written authority to his Legal Practitioner and thereupon proceedings in the action or in respect of the specified cause or causes of action (as the case may be) shall be abated.
 - (3) If the claimant accepts money paid into court in satisfaction of his claim, or if he accepts a sum or sums paid in respect of one or more specified causes of action, and gives notice that he abandons the other causes of action, he may after 4 days from payment out and unless a Judge otherwise orders, tax his costs incurred to the time of payment into court, and 48 hours after taxation may sign judgment for his taxed costs.
 - (4) Where in an action for libel or slander, the claimant accepts money paid into court, either party may apply by summons to a Judge for leave for the parties or either of them to make a statement in open Court in terms approved by the Judge.
3. If the whole of the money in the court is not taken out under Rule 2, the money remaining in court shall not be paid out except in satisfaction of the claim or specified cause or causes of action in respect of which it was paid in pursuance of an order of a Judge which may be made at any time before, at or after trial.
 - (1) Money may be paid into court under Rule 1 of this order by one or more of several defendants sued jointly or in the alternative upon notice to the defendant or defendants.
 - (2) If the claimant elects within 14 days after receipt of notice of payment into court to accept the sums paid into court, he shall give notice as in Form 16 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require to each defendant and thereupon all further proceedings in the action or in respect of the specified cause or causes of action (as the case may be) shall abate.
 - (3) The money shall not be paid out except in pursuance of an order of a Judge dealing with the whole cause or causes of action.
 - (4) In an action for libel or slander against several defendants sued jointly, if any defendant pays money into court, the claimant may within 14 days elect to accept the sum paid into court in satisfaction of his claim against the defendant making the payment and shall give notice to all the defendants as in form 15 with such modifications or variations as circumstance may require. The claimant may tax his costs against the defendant who has made such payment in accordance with Rule 2 (3) of this Order and the action shall abate against that defendant.
 - (5) The claimant may continue with the action against any other defendant but the sum paid into court shall be set off against any damages awarded to the claimant against the defendant or defendants against whom the action is continued.
5. A person made a defendant to a counterclaim may pay money into court in accordance with the foregoing rules, with necessary modification.
 - (1) In any proceeding in which money or damages is or are claimed by or on behalf of a person under legal disability suing either alone or in conjunction with other parties, no settlement or compromise or payment or acceptance of money paid into court, whether before, at or after the trial, shall as regards the claims of any such person be valid without the approval of a Judge.
 - (2) No money (which expression for the purposes of this Rule includes damages) in any way recovered or adjudged or ordered or awarded or agreed to be paid in any such proceedings in respect of the claims of any such person under legal disability whether by judgment, settlement, compromise, payment into court or otherwise, before, at or after the trial, shall be paid to the claimant or to the guardian of the claimant or to the claimant's Legal Practitioner unless a Judge shall so direct.
 - (3) All money so recovered or adjudged or ordered or awarded or agreed to be paid shall be dealt with, as the Judge shall direct. The directions thus given may include any general or special directions that the Judge may deem fit to give, including directions on how the money is to be applied or dealt with and as to any payment to be made either directly or out of money paid into court to the claimant or to the guardian in respect of moneys paid or expenses incurred or for maintenance or otherwise for or on behalf of or for the benefit of the person under legal disability or otherwise or to the claimant's Legal Practitioner in respect of costs or of the difference between party and party and Legal Practitioner and client costs.

7. Every application or notice for payment into or transfer out of Court shall be made on notice to the other side.

Order 22

Proceedings in lieu of demurrer.

1. No demurrer shall be allowed.
2. (1) Any party may by his pleading raise any point of law and the Judge may dispose of the point so raised before, at or after the trial.
(2) If in the opinion of the Judge, the decision on such point of law substantially disposes of the whole proceedings or of any distinct part thereof, the Judge may make such decision as may be just.

Order 23

Discontinuance

1. (1) The claimant may at any time before receipt of the defence or after the receipt thereof, before taking any other proceeding in the action, by notice in writing duly filed and served, wholly discontinue his claim against all or any of the defendants or withdraw any part or parts of his claim. He shall thereupon pay such defendant's costs of action, or if the action be not wholly discontinued, the costs occasioned by the matter so withdrawn.
(2) A discontinuance or withdrawal as the case may be shall not be a defence to any subsequent claim.
(3) Where a defence has been filed, the claimant may with the leave of a Judge discontinue the proceedings or any part thereof on such terms and conditions as the Judge may order.
(4) Where proceedings have been stayed or struck out upon a claimant's withdrawal or discontinuance under this Order no subsequent claim shall be filed by him on the same or substantially the same facts until the terms imposed on him by the Judge have been fully complied with.
(5) The judge may in like manner and like discretion as to terms, upon the application of a defendant order the whole or any part of his alleged grounds of defence or counter claim to be withdrawn or struck out.
2. When a cause is ready for trial, it may be withdrawn by either claimant or defendant upon producing to the Registrar a consent in writing signed by the parties and thereupon a judge shall strike out the matter without the necessity of attendance of the parties or their Legal Practitioner.

12. In taking any account directed by any judgment or order, all just allowances shall be made without any direction for that purpose.
13. If it shall appear to the Judge that there is any undue delay in the prosecution of any proceedings, the Judge may require the party having the conduct of the proceedings or any other party, to explain the delay and may thereupon make such order with regard to expediting the proceedings or the conduct thereof, or the stay thereof and as to the costs of the proceedings as the circumstances of the case may require; and for the purposes aforesaid any party may be directed to summon the persons whose attendance is required, and to conduct any proceeding and carry out any directions which may be given.

Order 28
Special Case

1. At the pre-trial conference parties may concur in stating the questions of law arising in their case in the form of a special case for the opinion of the Judge. Every such special case shall be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively and shall concisely state such facts and documents as may be necessary to enable the court to decide the questions. Upon the argument of such case the Judge and the parties may refer to all the contents of such documents and the Judge may draw from the facts and documents stated in any such special case any inference, whether of fact or law, which might have been drawn from them if proved at a trial.
2. If at the pre-trial conference it appears to the judge that there is in any cause or matter a question of law, which could be conveniently decided before any evidence is given or any question or issue of fact is tried, the Judge may make an order accordingly, and may raise such questions of law or direct them to be raised at the trial either by special case or in such other manner as the judge may deem expedient, and all such further proceedings as the decision of such question of law may render unnecessary may thereupon be stayed.
3. Every special case agreed pursuant to Rule 1 shall be signed by the several parties or their Legal practitioners and shall be filed by the claimant or other party having conduct of the proceedings.
4. An application to set down a special case in any cause or matter to which a person under legal disability is a party shall be supported by sufficient evidence that the statements contained in such case, so far as the same affects the interest of such persons legal are true.
5. (1) The parties to a special case may, if they think fit, enter into an agreement in writing, which shall not be subject to any stamp duty, that on the judgment of the court being given in the affirmative or negative on the questions of law raised by the special case, a sum of money fixed by the parties or to be ascertained by the court or in such manner as the Court may direct, shall be paid by one of the parties to the other of them, either with or without costs as the case may be.
(2) The Judgment of the court may be entered for the sum so agreed or ascertained, with or without cost, as the case may be, and execution may issue upon such judgment forthwith, unless otherwise agreed or unless stayed on appeal.
6. This Order shall apply to every special case stated in a cause or matter and in any proceedings incidental thereto.

Order 29
Cause Lists

1. (1) The Registrar shall keep a list (hereinafter called the Pre-Trial List) of actions directed to be set down for pre-trial conference under Order 25 Rule 3.
(2) The Registrar shall also keep a Weekly Cause List of all other actions, which are ready for trial or hearing.
2. (1) The Registrar shall post up every Friday a Pre-Trial and Weekly Cause List which shall set out the arrangement of causes before each of the Judges sitting in Court during the following week
(2) Nothing in this rule shall preclude the Chief Judge from making special arrangements whenever necessary or convenient, for the disposal of causes and matters included in the list.
3. Where any Friday is a public holiday, the Pre-Trial List and Holidays Weekly shall be posted up on the day last preceding which is not a public holiday.
4. On any day when a Judge shall be unable to sit in Court and deal with any cause or matter fixed for hearing, a minute, recording the parties present and the step taken by the Registrar, shall be entered on the Court file.
5. Pre-Trial Lists and Weekly Cause Lists and other such lists shall be posted up on one or more notice boards set up in such place or places within or near the Court premises as the Chief Judge may designate.

Order 30
Proceeding at Trial

1. When a cause on a Weekly Cause List has been called for hearing and neither party appears, the Judge shall unless he sees good reason to the contrary, strike the cause out.

2. When a cause is called for hearing if the claimant appears and the defendant does not appear, the claimant may prove his claim, so far as the burden of proof lies upon him.
3. When a cause is called for hearing, if the defendant appears and the claimant does not appear, the defendant if he has no counter claim shall be entitled to judgment dismissing the action but if he has a counterclaim, then he may prove such counterclaim so far as the burden of proof lies upon him.
4. (1) Where a cause is struck out under Rule 1 of this order either party may apply that the cause be replaced on the cause list on such terms as the Judge may deem fit.
 - (2) Any judgment obtained where any party does not appear at the trial may be set aside by the Judge upon such terms as he may deem fit.
 - (3) An application to re-list a cause struck out or to set aside a judgment shall be made within 6 days after the order or judgment or such other larger period as the Judge may allow.
5. The Judge may, if he thinks it expedient in the interests of justice, postpone or adjourn a trial for such time and upon such terms, if any, as he shall deem fit.
6. The Registrar or other proper officer present at any trial or hearing shall make a note of the times at which the trial or hearing commences and terminates respectively and the time it actually occupies on each day it goes on for communication to the taxing officer if required.
7. The order of proceeding at the trial of a cause shall be as prescribed in the following rules.
8. The party on whom the burden of proof lies by the nature of the issues or questions between the parties shall begin.
9. Documentary evidence shall be put in and may be read or taken as read by consent.
10. (1) A party who desires to call any witness not being a witness whose deposition on oath accompanied his pleading shall apply to the Judge for leave to call such witness.
 - (2) An application for leave in sub-rule 1 above shall be accompanied by the deposition on oath on such witness.
11. (1) A party shall close his case when he has concluded his evidence. Either the claimant or defendant may make oral application to have the case closed.
 - (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-rule 1 above, the Judge may suo-motu where he considered that either party fails to conclude his case within a reasonable time, close the case for the party.
12. (1) The Registrar shall take charge of every document or object put in as an exhibit during the trial of an action and shall mark or label every exhibit with a letter or letters indicating the party by whom the exhibit is put in (or where more convenient the witness by whom the exhibit is proved) and with a number, so that all the exhibits put in by a party (or proved by a witness) are numbered in one consecutive series.
 - (2) The Registrar shall cause a list of all the exhibits in the action to be made.
 - (3) The list of exhibits when completed shall form part of the records of the action.
 - (4) For the purpose of this rule a bundle of documents may be treated and counted as one exhibit.
 - (5) In this rule a witness by whom an exhibit is proved includes a witness in the course of whose evidence the exhibit is put in.
13. When the party beginning has concluded his evidence, the Judge shall ask the other party if he intends to call evidence. If the other party does not intend to call evidence, the party beginning shall within 21 days after close of evidence file a written address. Upon being served with the written address, the other party shall within 21 days file his own written address.
14. Where the other party calls evidence he shall within 21 days after the close of evidence file a written address.
15. Upon being served with other party's written address the party beginning shall within 21 days file his own written address.

16. The party who files the first address shall have a right of reply on points of law only. The reply shall be filed within 7 days after service of the other party's address.
17. (1) An exhibit should not be released after the trial to the party who has put it in unless the period during which notice of appeal may be given has elapsed without such notice having been given, and then only if the trial Judge (or in his absence another Judge) grants leave to release such exhibit on being satisfied:
 - (a) that the exhibit will be kept duly marked and labeled and will be produced, if required, at the hearing of an appeal (if any such appeal is logged), or
 - (b) that the release of the exhibit will not in any way prejudice any other party.(2) After a notice of appeal has been filed, an exhibit produced at the trial shall not be release by the High Court unless leave to release such exhibit is granted by the Court of Appeal.
18. (1) Any party may apply for and on payment of the prescribed fee obtain an office copy of the list of exhibits for the exhibits.
 - (2) Where there is an appeal an office copy of the list of exhibits shall be included amongst the documents supplied for the purpose of the appeal.
19. A Judge may, suo motu or on application strike out any proceedings not being prosecuted diligently.

Order 31
Filling of Written Address

1. This order shall apply to all applications and final addresses.
2. A written address shall be printed on white opaque A4 size paper and set out in paragraphs numbered serially and shall contain:
 - (i) the claim or application on which the address is based
 - (ii) a brief statement of the facts with reference to the exhibit attached to the application or tendered at the trial;
 - (iii) The issue arising from the evidence;
 - (iv) a succinct statement of argument on each issue incorporating the purport of the authorities referred to together with full citation of each such authority.
3. All written addresses shall be concluded with a numbered summary of the points raised and the party's prayer. A list of all authorities referred to shall be submitted with the address. Where any unreported judgment is relied upon the Certified True Copy shall be submitted along with the written address.
4. Oral argument of not more than twenty minutes shall be allowed for each party.
5. Each party shall file two copies of his written address in court and serve a copy thereof on every party.

9. The Judge may at any stage of any proceedings order the attendance of any person for the purpose of producing any writings or other documents named in the order:

Provided that no person shall be compelled to produce under any such order any writing or other document which he could not be compelled to produce at the hearing or trial.
10. Any person willfully disobeying any order requiring his attendance for the purpose of being examined or producing any document shall be in contempt of court, and may be dealt with accordingly.
11. Any person required to attend for the purpose of being examined or of producing any document, shall be entitled to payment for expenses and loss of time occasioned by his attendance.
12. If any person duly summoned by subpoena to attend for examination shall refuse to attend or if having attended, he shall refuse to be sworn or to answer any lawful question he shall be in contempt of court and may be dealt with accordingly by the Judge.

13. When the examination of any witness before any examiner under Rule 7 above shall have been conducted, the original deposition authenticated by the signature of the examiner, shall be transmitted by him to the Registry and filed.
14. Except where by this Order otherwise provided or directed by a Judge, no deposition shall be given in evidence at the hearing or trial of the case or matter without the consent of the party against whom the same may be offered, unless the Judge is satisfied that the deponent is dead or beyond the jurisdiction of the court or unable from sickness or other infirmity to attend the hearing or trial, in any of which case the depositions certified under the hand of the person taking the examination shall be admissible in evidence, saving all just exceptions, without proof of the signature to such certificate.
15. Any officer of the Court or other person directed to take the examination of any witness or person or any person nominated or appointed to take the examination of any witness or person pursuant to the provisions of any Convention now made or which may hereafter be made with any foreign country, may administer oaths.
16. A party may by subpoena ad testificandum or duces tecum require the attendance of any witness before an officer of the court or other person appointed to take the examination, for the purpose of using his evidence upon any proceeding in the cause or matter in like manner as such witness would be bound to attend and be examined at the hearing or trial; and any party or witness having made an affidavit to be used in any proceeding in the cause or matter shall be bound on being so subpoenaed to attend before such officer or person for cross-examination.
17. The practice with reference to the examination, cross examination and re-examination of witnesses at a trial shall extend and be applicable to evidence taken in any cause or matter at any stage.
18. The practice of court with respect to evidence at a trial, when applied to evidence to be taken before an officer of the court or other person in any case or matter after the hearing of trial, shall be subjected to any special directions, which may be given in any case.
19. Subject to the provision of section 34 of the Evidence Act, all evidence taken at the hearing or trial of any cause or matter may be used in any subsequent proceedings in the same cause or matter.
20. Where it is intended to issue out a subpoena a praecipe for that purpose in Form 26 containing the name or firm and the place of business or residence of the Legal Practitioner intending to issue out the same, and where such Legal Practitioner is agent only, then also the name or firm and the place of business or and residence of the principal Legal Practitioner, shall in all cases be delivered and filed at the Registry. No subpoena shall be issued unless all court fees have been paid (including fee for service) and unless sufficient conduct money on the prescribed scale is deposited to cover the first day's attendance.
21. A subpoena shall be in one of Forms 27, 28, or 29 with such variations as circumstances may require.
22. Where a subpoena is required for the attendance of a witness for the purpose of proceedings in Chambers, such subpoena shall issue from the Registry upon the Judge's directive.
23. In the interval between the issue and service of any subpoena the Legal Practitioner issuing it may correct any error in the names of parties or witnesses, and may have the writ resealed upon leaving a corrected praecipe of the subpoena marked with words "altered and resealed", with the signature, name and address of the Legal Practitioner.
24. A subpoena shall be served personally unless substituted service has been ordered by Judge in a case where a person persistently evades service. The provisions of Order 7 shall so far as possible apply to service and proof of service of a subpoena.
25. Any subpoena shall remain in force from the date of issue until the trial of action or matter in which it is issued.
26. Any person who would under the circumstances alleged by him to exist become entitled upon the happening of any future event to any honour, title, dignity or office, or to any estate or interest in any property real or personal the right or claim to which cannot be brought to trial by him before the happening of such event, may commence an action to perpetuate any testimony which may be material for establishing such right or claim.
27. A witness shall not be examined to perpetuate his testimony unless an action has been commenced for that purpose.
28. No action to perpetuate the testimony of a witness shall be set down for trial.

Order 33
Affidavits

1. Upon any motion, petition, summons or other application, evidence may be given by affidavit, but the Judge may, suo motu or on application, order the attendance for cross- examination of the deponent and where, after such an order has been made the person in question does not attend, his affidavit shall not be used as evidence save by special leave.
2. Every affidavit shall bear the title in the cause or matter in which it is sworn but in every case in which there is more than one claimant or defendant, it shall be sufficient to state the full name of the first claimant or defendants respectively, and that there are other claimants or defendants as the case may be.
3. The Judge may receive any affidavit sworn for the purpose of being used in any cause or matter, notwithstanding any defect by misdescription of parties or otherwise in the title or jurat, or any other irregularity in the form thereof , and may direct a memorandum to be made on the document that it has been so received.
4. Where a special time is limited for filing affidavits, no affidavit filed after time shall be used, unless by leave of the Judge.
5. Except by leave of the Judge no order made ex-parte in Court founded on any affidavit shall be of any force unless the affidavit on which the application was based was made before the order was applied for, and produced of filed at the time of making the application.
6. The party intending to use any affidavit in support of any application made by him shall give notice to the other parties concerned.
7. Every alteration in any account verified by affidavit shall be marked with the initials of the commissioner before whom the affidavit is sworn and alterations shall not be made by erasure.
8. Accounts, extract from registers, particulars of creditors' debt, and other documents referred to by affidavit, shall not be annexed to the affidavit or referred to as annexed, but shall be referred to as exhibits.
9. Every certificate on an exhibit referred to in an affidavit signed by the commissioner before whom the affidavit is sworn shall be marked with the short title of the cause or matter.
10. The provisions of section 79 to 90 of the Evidence Act which set out provisions governing affidavits shall be applicable under these rules.

Order 34
Non-Suit

1. Where satisfactory evidence is not given entitling the claimant or defendant to the judgment of the Court, the Judge may suo motu or on application non-suit the claimant, but the parties' Legal Practitioners shall have the right to make submissions about the propriety or otherwise of making such order.
2. The Judge may upon a motion for a new trial or review of judgment, order a non-suit or judgment to be entered, although no leave has been reserved at the trial.

Order 35
Judgment, Entry of Judgment

1. The Judge shall at the pre-trial conference or after trial, deliver Judgment in open court, and shall direct judgment to be entered.
2. Where any judgment is pronounced by a Judge the judgment shall be dated as of the day on which such judgment is pronounced and shall take effect from that date unless the Judge otherwise orders.
3. When any judgment is directed to be entered by an order made on application for judgments, the judgment shall, unless the Judge otherwise orders, be dated as of the day on which the order is made and take effect from that date:

Provided that the order may direct that the judgment shall not be entered until a given date, in which case it shall take effect from that date.

4. The Judge at the time of making any judgment or order or at any time afterwards, may direct the time within which the payment is to be made or other act is to be done reckoned from the date of the judgment or order or from some other point of time, as the Judge deems fit and may order interest at a rate not less than 10% per annum to be paid upon any judgment.

5. Every judgment or order made in any cause or matter requiring any person to do an act shall state time the time or the time after service of the judgment or order, within which the act is to be done; there shall be indorsed on the judgment or order a memorandum by the Registrar in following words, viz:

"If you, the within-named. A.B., neglect to obey this judgment (or order) by the time therein limited, you will be liable to process of execution for the purpose of compelling you to obey the said judgment (or order)" and same shall be served upon the person required to obey the judgment or order.

6. In any cause or matter where the defendant has appeared by Legal Practitioner, no order for entering judgment shall be made by consent unless the consent of the defendant is given by his Legal Practitioner or agent.
7. Where the defendant has no Legal Practitioner such order shall not be made unless the defendant gives his consent in person in open court.

Order 36 Drawing up of Orders

1. Every order shall bear the date on which it was made unless the Judge otherwise directs and shall take effect accordingly.
2. Where an order has been made not embodying any special terms, nor including any special directions, but simply enlarging time for taking any proceeding or doing any act or giving leave-
 - (a) for the issue of any writ other than a writ of attachment;
 - (b) for the amendment of any writ or pleading;
 - (c) for the filing of any document; or
 - (d) for any act to be done by any officer of the Court other than a legal practitioner, it shall not be necessary to draw up such order unless the Judge otherwise directs; but the production of a note or memorandum of such order signed by a Judge shall be sufficient authority for such enlargement of time, issue, amendment, filing or other act. A direction that the costs of such order shall be costs in any cause or matter shall not be deemed to be a special direction within the meaning of this rule.
3. An order shall be sealed, and shall be marked with the name of the Judge by whom it is made.

Order 37 Transfers and Consolidation

1 Transfers

1. Where the Chief Judge has in exercise of any powers conferred on him by any relevant law, ordered the transfer of any action or matter from a lower court to the High Court, a copy of the order duly certified by the Registrar shall forthwith be sent to the Registrar of the lower court and the latter shall transmit to the High Court the documents referred to in the relevant law and other necessary documents and processes.
2.
 - (1) On receipt by the court of the relevant documents and processes, the Registrar shall notify the party who applied for the transfer or where the transfer was not made on the application of any party, the claimant, to attend at the Registry and pay the fees for filing the documents. Such payments shall be without prejudice to the question of how the costs shall ultimately be borne.
 - (2) Such notification shall be effected by serving a notice personally on the party concerned, or, where an address for service has been given by such party, at that address.
3.
 - (1) The Registrar shall on payment of the prescribed fees, in any case not later than 7 days:
 - (a) file the documents received from the Lower Court;
 - (b) make an entry of the filing in the Cause Book; and

- (c) transmit the documents to the Chief Judge or such other Judge appointed by the Chief Judge.
 - (2) The Registrar shall then give notice to the parties to attend in person or by counsel before a named Judge on the day and at the time specified in the notice. The fees for the service of this notice shall be borne in the first instance by the party who has paid the fees for filing as provided by Rule 2 of this Order.
4. (1) The Chief Judge or such other Judge appointed by him shall, not later than 14 days after receiving the documents referred to Rule 3 of this order
- (a) hear the parties or their Legal Practitioners;
 - (b) take cognizance of the documents; and thereafter;
 - (c) give directions for the trial or hearing of the action or matter.
- (2) Directions given under this rule may include directions for the filing and service of pleadings.
5. (1) If the claimant fails to attend in compliance with a notice given under sub-rule 2 of Rule 3 of this order, the Judge shall record his default and may, suo moto or on application, dismiss the action or matter. Upon an application by the defendant to dismiss the action or matter, the Judge may either dismiss the action or matter upon such term as may be just or make such other order on such terms as he deems just.
- (2) If the defendant fails or all of several defendants fail to attend in compliance with a notice given under sub-rule 2 of Rule 3, the claimant may enter judgment with costs or obtain the order prayed for in the transferred proceedings.
6. In the preceding rule of this Order, the references to the claimant and the defendant shall in relation to proceedings commenced otherwise than by writ, be construed as references to the application and the respondent.

Consolidation

7. (1) The Judge may on application consolidate several actions pending before him where it appears that the issues are the same in all the actions, and can therefore be properly tried and determined at the same time.
- (2) Where actions are pending before different Judges, a party desiring consolidation shall first apply to the Chief Judge for transfer of the matter to a Judge before whom one or more of the matters is pending.
- (3) An order to consolidate may be made where two or more actions are pending between the same claimant and the same defendant or between the same claimant and different defendants or between different claimants and the same defendant or between different claimants and different defendants:

Provided that where the same claimant brings actions against different defendants, they will not be consolidated without the consent of all parties unless the issues to be tried are identical.

- (4) Where an order for consolidation has been made, it shall be drawn up at the expense of the party or parties who applied for consolidation and shall be recorded in the Cause Book.

Order 38
Interlocutory Order, etc.

1. (1) When by any contract a prima facie case of liability is established and there is alleged as a matter of defence a right to be relieved wholly or partially from such liability, a Judge may make an order for the preservation or interim custody of the subject-matter of the litigation or may order that the amount in dispute be brought into Court or otherwise secured.
- (2) An application for an order under Rule 1 sub-rule 1 of this Order may be made by the claimant at any time after his right thereto appears from the pleadings.
2. Whenever an application shall be made before trial for an injunction or other order and on the opening of such application, or at any time during the hearing thereof, it shall appear to the Judge that the matter in controversy in the cause or matter is one which can be most conveniently dealt with by an early trial, without first going into the whole merits on affidavit or other evidence for the purposes of the application, it shall be lawful for the judge to make an order for such trial accordingly and in the meantime to make such order as the justice of the case may require.

3. The Judge may upon the application of any party make any order for the sale by any person or persons named in such order and in such manner and on such terms as the Judge may deem desirable, of any goods, wares or merchandise which may be of a perishable nature or likely to injure from keeping or which for any other just and sufficient reason it may be desirable to sell at once.
 - (1) A Judge may upon the application of any party to an action or matter and upon such terms as may be just, to make any order for the detention, preservation or inspection of any property or thing, being the subject of such action or matter or as to which any question may arise therein and for all or any of the purposes aforesaid authorize any persons to enter upon or into any land or building in the possession of any party to such action or matter, and for all or any of the purposes aforesaid authorize any samples to be taken or any observation to be made or experiment to be tried, which may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of obtaining full information or evidence.
 - (2) Where an order for the inspection of any property or thing is made on an application under this rule (including an application made before any pleadings have been delivered in the action or matter) it appears that inspection was requested in writing by the applicant and was not given, then, unless the Judge is satisfied that the respondent did not unreasonably fail or refuse to permit the inspection, the Judge shall order the costs to be paid by the respondent in any event and except where the respondent is a "Poor Person", shall order the cost to be paid forthwith.
 - (3) The Judge by whom any action or matter may be heard or tried, may inspect any property or thing concerning which any question may arise therein.
 - (1) Where any property is in possession of the Court either before or after judgment and it has remained so for a period of 12 months, a Judge may suo motu make an order for the sale of that property and the proceeds thereof to be paid into an interest yielding account in a commercial bank directed by the Judge for the benefit of the person that succeeds at the trial or on appeal.
 - (2) The money paid after disposal of any goods or chattel shall be withdrawn from the bank by the successful party who shall present to the Chief Registrar a certified true copy of the enrolment of the judgment.
6. Where an action or counterclaim is filed to recover specific property and the party from whom such recovery is sought does not dispute title but claims to retain the property by virtue of a lien or otherwise as security for any sum of money, the Judge may at the pre-trial conference order that the party claiming to recover the property be at liberty to pay into Court, to abide the event of the action, the amount of money in respect of which the lien or security is claimed and such further sum if any, for interest and costs as the Judge may direct and that upon such payment into Court being made, the property claimed be given up to the party claiming it.
7. Where any real or personal estate or property forms the subject of any proceedings and the Judge is satisfied that the same will be more than sufficient to answer all the claims thereon which ought to be provided for in such proceedings, the judge may at any time after the commencement of the proceedings, allow the parties interested therein or any one or more of them, the whole or part of the annual income of the real estate or a part of the personal estate or property or the whole or part of the income therefore, up to such time as the Judge shall direct.
8. In any action or matter in which an injunction has been or might have been claimed, the claimant may, before or after judgment, apply for an injunction to restrain the defendant or respondent from the repetition or continuance of the commission of the wrongful act or breach of contract complained of or from the commission of any injury relating to the same property or right or arising out of the same contract and the Judge may grant the injunction either upon or without terms as may be just.
9. In every case in which an application is made for the appointment of a receiver by way of equitable execution, the Judge in determining whether it is just or convenient that such appointment should be made shall have regard to the amount of the debt claimed by the applicant, to the amount which may probably be obtained by the receiver and to the probable costs of his appointment and may if the Judge shall deem fit, direct any inquiries on these or other matters before making the appointment.
10. Where an order is made directing a receiver to be appointed, unless otherwise ordered the person to be appointed shall first give security, to be approved by the Judge, duly to account for what he shall receive as such receiver, and to pay the same as the Judge shall direct; and the person so to be appointed shall, unless otherwise ordered be allowed a proper salary or allowance. The security to be given shall be by guarantee or by an undertaking in Forms 30 and 31 with such variation as circumstances may require. The undertaking shall be filed in the Registry and from part of the record of proceedings until it has been duly vacated.
11. Where any judgment or order is pronounced or made in court appointing a person therein named to be receiver the Court may adjourn the proceedings then pending, in order that the person named as receiver may give security as in the last preceding rule mentioned, and may thereupon direct such judgment or order to be drawn up.

12. When a receiver is appointed with a direction that he shall pass accounts, the Judge shall fix the days upon which he shall (quarterly or at shorter periods) leave and pass such accounts, and also the days upon which he shall pay the balances appearing due on the accounts so left, or such part of them as shall be certified as proper to be paid by him. With respect to any such receiver as neglects to leave and pass his accounts and pay the balances at the times fixed for the purpose as aforesaid, the Judge may from time to time when his subsequent accounts are produced to be examined and passed, disallow the salary claimed by such receiver and may also charge him with interest at a rate not exceeding twenty- five per cent per annum upon the balances so neglected to be paid by him during the time the same appears to have remained in his hands.
13. Receivers' accounts shall be in Form 32 with such variations as circumstances may require.
14. Every receiver shall deliver to the Registrar his account, together with an affidavit verifying the same in Form 33 with such variations as circumstances may require. An appointment shall thereupon be obtained by the claimant or person having the conduct of the action for the purpose of passing such account.
15. Where any receiver fails to leave any account or affidavit or to pass such account or to make any payment or otherwise, the receiver or the parties or any of them, may be required to show cause why such account passed or such payment was made or any other proper proceedings taken and the thereupon such directions as shall be proper may be given, including the discharge of any receiver and appointment of another and payment of costs.
16. The accounts of guardians shall be passed and verified in the same manner as is by this Order directed as to receivers' accounts.

Order 39

Motions and other applications

1.
 - (1) Where by these rules any application is authorized to be made to a Judge, such application shall be made by motion which may be supported by affidavit and shall state under what rule of Court or Law the application is brought. Every motion shall be served within 5 days of filing.
 - (2) Every such application shall be accompanied by a written address in support of the relief sought.
 - (3) Where the other party intends to oppose the application, he shall within 7 days of the service on him of such application, file his written address and may accompany it with a counter affidavit.
 - (4) The applicant may on being served with the written address of the opposing party file and serve an address in reply on points of law within 7 days of being served. Where a counter affidavit is served on the applicant, he may file further affidavit with his reply.
2. No motion or application for a rule nisi or order to show cause shall be made in any action.
3.
 - (1) Except where an application ex-parte is required or permitted under any law or rules, every motion shall be on notice to the other party.
 - (2) No application for an injunction shall be made ex-parte unless the applicant files with it a motion on notice in respect of the application.
 - (3) An order of injunction made upon an application ex- parte shall abate after 7 days.
 - (4) A judge may upon application extend the effective period of an order made ex-parte if he is satisfied that the motion on notice have been served and that such such extension is necessary in the interest of justice or to prevent an irreparable or serious mischief. The application for an extension shall be made before abatement of the order and the extension shall not be for a period exceeding 7 days from the day the extension is granted.
 - (1) Every motion on notice to set aside, remit or enforce an arbitral award shall state in general terms the grounds of the application and where any such motion is founded on evidence by affidavit, a copy of any affidavit intended to be used shall be served with the notice of motion.
 - (2) The party relying on an award, on applying for its enforcement, shall supply:
 - (a) the duly authenticated original award or a duly certified copy thereof;
 - (b) the original arbitration agreement or a duly certified copy thereof.
 - (3) An award made by an arbitrator or a decision reached at the Multi-Door Court House may by leave of the Judge be enforced in the same manner as a judgment or order of Court.

- (4) An application to set aside or remit any award may be made at any time within 6 weeks after such award has been made and published to the parties:

Provided that a Judge may by order extend the said time either before or after the same has elapsed.

5. Unless the Judge grants special leave to the country, there must be at least 2 clear days between the service of all processes in respect of a motion and the day named in the notice of hearing the motion.
6. If on the hearing of a motion or other application the Judge shall be of opinion that any person to whom notice has not been given ought to have had such notice, the Judge may either dismiss the motion or application or adjourn the hearing thereof in order that such notice may be given upon such terms, if any, as the Judge may deem it fit to impose.
7. The hearing of any motion or application may from time to time be adjourned upon such terms, if any as the Judge shall deem fit.

Provided that application for adjournment at the request of a party shall not be made more than two times.

8. A claimant may file any application along with an originating process and may serve both on any defendant simultaneously.
9. Where the relationship of Legal Practitioner and client exists or has existed, a summons may be issued by the client or his representative for the delivery of a cash account or the payment of moneys or delivery of securities, and a Judge may from time to time order the respondent to deliver to the applicant a list of the moneys or securities which he has in his custody or control on behalf of the applicant or to bring into Court the whole or any part of the same, within such time as the Judge may order. In the event of the respondent alleging that he has a claim for costs, the Judge may make such provision for the taxation and the payment or security thereof or the protection of the respondent's lien (if any) as he may deem fit.
10. If during the taxation of any bill of costs or the taking of any account between Legal Practitioner and client, it shall appear to the taxing officer that there must, in any event be moneys due from the Legal Practitioner to the client, the taxing officer may from time to time make an interim certificate as to the amount so payable by the Legal Practitioner. Upon the filling of such certificate, a Judge may order the moneys so certified to be forthwith paid to the client or brought into Court.

Order 40

Application for Judicial Review

1. (1) An application for:
- (a) an order of mandamus, prohibition or certiorari; or
 - (b) an injunction restraining a person from acting in any office in which he is not entitled to act shall be made by way of an application for judicial review in accordance with the provisions of this Order.
- (2) An application for a declaration or an injunction (not being an injunction in rule (1)(b) of this Rule) may be made by way of an application for judicial review and the Court may grant the declaration or injunction if it deems it just and convenient to grant it by way of judicial review, having regard to:
- (a) the nature of the matters in respect of which relief may be granted by way of an order of mandamus, prohibition or certiorari;
 - (b) the nature of the persons and bodies against whom relief may be granted by way of such an order;
 - (c) all the circumstances of the case.
2. On an application for judicial review any relief mentioned in Rule 1 may be claimed as an alternative or in addition to any other relief so mentioned if it arises out of, relates to or is connected with the same matter.
3. (1) No application for judicial review shall be made unless the leave of the court has been obtained in accordance with this rule.
- (2) An application for leave shall be made ex-parte to the Judge and shall be supported by:
- (a) a statement setting out the name and description of the applicant, the reliefs sought and the grounds on which they are sought;

- (b) an affidavit verifying the facts relied on and
 - (c) a written address in support of application for leave.
- (3) The Judge hearing an application for leave may allow the applicant's statement to be amended, whether by specifying different or additional grounds of relief or otherwise on such terms, if any, as he deems fit.
- (4) The Judge shall not grant leave unless he considers that the applicant has sufficient interest in the matter to which the application relates.
- (5) Where leave is sought to apply for an order of certiorari to remove for the purpose of its being quashed any judgement, order, conviction or proceedings which is subject to appeal and a time is limited for the bringing of the appeal, the Judge may adjourn the application for leave until the appeal is determined or the time for appealing has expired.
- (6) Where leave to apply for judicial review is granted, then:
 - (a) If the relief sought is an order of prohibition or certiorari and the Judge so directs, the grant shall operate as a stay of the proceedings to which the application relates until the determination of the application or until the Judge otherwise orders;
 - (b) if any other relief is sought, the Judge may at any time grant in the proceedings such interim relief as could be granted in an action begun by writ;
 - (c) The Judge may impose such terms as to costs and as to giving security as he deems fit.
- 4. An application for judicial review shall be brought within 3 months of the date of occurrence of the subject of the application.
- 5.
 - (1) where leave has been granted the application may be made by motion or by originating summons.
 - (2) The notice of motion or summons shall be served on all persons directly affected and where it relates to any proceedings before a Judge and the object of the application is either to compel the Judge or an officer of the court to do any act in relation to the proceedings, or to quash them or any order made therein, the notice or summons shall also be served on the Clerk or Registrar of the court and where any objection to the conduct of the judge is to be made, on the Judge.
 - (3) Unless the Judge granting leave has otherwise directed, there shall be at least 7 days between the service of the notice of motion or summons and the day named therein for the hearing.
 - (4) A motion shall be entered for hearing within 14 days after the grant of leave.
 - (5) An affidavit giving the names and address of and the places and dates of service on all persons who have been served with the notice of motion or summons shall be filed before the motion or summons is entered for hearing and if any person who ought to be served under this rule has not been served, the affidavit shall state that fact and the reason for it and the affidavit shall be before the Judge on the hearing of the motion or summons.
 - (6) If on the hearing of the motion or summons the Judge is of opinion that any person who ought, whether under this rule or otherwise, to have been served has not been served, the Judge may adjourn the hearing on such terms, if any, as he may direct in order that the notice or summons may be served on that person.
- 6.
 - (1) Copies of the statement in support of an application for leave under Rule 3 shall be served with the notice of motion or summons and subject to sub-rule 2, no grounds shall be relied upon or any relief sought at the hearing except the grounds and relief set out in the statement.
 - (2) The Judge may on the hearing of the motion or summons allow the applicant to amend his statement whether, by specifying different or additional grounds of relief or otherwise, on such terms, if any, as he deems fit and may allow further affidavits to be used if they deal with new matters arising out of an affidavit of any other party to the application.
 - (3) Where the applicant intends to ask to be allowed to amend his statement or to use further affidavit, he shall give notice of his intentions and of any proposed amendment to every other party.
 - (4) Each party to the application shall supply to every other party a copy of every affidavit which he proposes to use at the hearing including, in the case of the applicant, the affidavit in support of the application for leave under Rule 3.

7. On an application for judicial review the Judge may, subject to Rule 2, award damages to the applicant if:
 - (a) he has included in the statement in support of his application for leave under Rule 3 a claim for damages arising from any matter to which the application relates and
 - (b) the Judge is satisfied that if the claim had been made in an action begun by the applicant at the time of making his application, he could have been awarded damages.
8. Any interlocutory application in proceedings on an application for judicial review may be made to the Judge.
9.
 - (1) On the hearing of any motion or summons under Rule 5, any person who desires to be heard on the motion or summons, and appears to the Judge to be a proper person to be heard, shall be heard notwithstanding that he has not been served with notice of the motion or the summons.
 - (2) Where the relief sought is or includes an order of certiorari to remove any proceedings for the purpose of quashing them, the applicant may not question the validity of any order, warrant, commitment, conviction, inquisition or record unless before the hearing of the motion or summons he has filed a copy thereof verified by affidavit or accounts for his failure to do so to the satisfaction of the judge hearing the motion or summons.
 - (3) Where an order of certiorari is made in any such case as is referred to in sub-rule 2, the order shall, subject to sub-rule 4, direct that the proceedings shall be quashed forthwith on their removal into Court.
 - (4) Where the relief sought is an order of certiorari and the Judge is satisfied that there are grounds for quashing the decision to which the application relates, the Judge may, in addition to quashing it, remit the matter to the Court, tribunal or authority concerned with a direction to reconsider it and reach a decision in accordance with the findings of the Judge.
 - (5) Where the relief sought is a declaration, an injunction or damages and the Judge considers that it should not be granted on an application for judicial review but might have been granted if it had been sought in an action begun by writ by the applicant at the time of making his application, the Judge may, instead of refusing the application, order the proceedings to continue as if they had been begun by writ.
10. No action or proceeding shall be brought or prosecuted against any person in respect of any thing done in obedience to an order of mandamus
11. Where there is more than one application pending against several persons in respect of the same matter and on the same grounds, the Judge may order the applications to be consolidated

1. Every Legal Practitioner who shall be engaged in any cause or matter shall be bound to conduct same on behalf of the claimant or defendant as the case may be, by or for whom he shall have been so engaged until final judgment, unless allowed for any special reason to cease acting therein.
2. An application for a change of Legal Practitioner or withdrawal may be made by the claimant or defendant or the Legal Practitioner as the case may be, not less than 3 clear days before the date fixed for hearing.
3. Where the application is made by a Legal Practitioner, it shall be served on all parties to the cause or matter and where applicable also on the outgoing Legal Practitioner if he is not the applicant.

Order 49

Costs

1. (1) In fixing the amount of costs, the principle to be observed is that the party who is in the right is to be indemnified for the expenses to which he has been necessarily put in the proceedings, as well as compensated for his time and effort in coming to court. But the Judge may take into account all the circumstances of the case.
(2) When costs are ordered to be paid, the amount of such costs shall, if practicable, be summarily determined by the Judge at the time of delivering the judgment or making the order.
(3) When the Judge deems it to be impracticable to determine summarily the amount of any costs which he has adjudged or ordered to be paid, all questions relating thereto shall be referred by the Judge to a taxing officer for taxation.
2. In any cause or matter in which security for costs is required, the security shall be such amount and be given at such times and in such manner and form as the Judge shall direct.
3. A claimant ordinarily resident out of the jurisdiction may be ordered to give security for costs, though he may be temporarily resident within the jurisdiction.
4. In actions brought by persons resident out of the jurisdiction, when the claimant's claim is founded on a judgment or order or on a bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument, the power to require the claimant to give security for costs shall be exercised at the Judge's discretion.
5. Where a bond is to be given as security for costs, it shall, unless the judge otherwise directs, be given to the party or person requiring the security and not to an officer of the court.
6. Subject to the provisions of any applicable law and these Rules, the costs of and incidental to all proceedings in the High Court, including the administration of estates and trusts, shall be at the discretion of the Judge, and the Judge shall have full power to determine by whom and to what extent the costs are to be paid.
7. The Judge may order any costs to be paid out of any fund or property to which a suit or proceedings relates.
8. Where the Judge orders costs to be paid or security to be given for costs by any party, the Judge may order all proceedings costs by or on behalf of that party in the same suit or proceeding or connected with it, to be stayed until the costs are paid or security given accordingly, but such order shall not supersede the use of any other lawful method of enforcing payment.
9. (1) . Costs may be dealt with by the Judge at any stage of the proceedings.
(2) Costs when ordered becomes payable forthwith, and shall be paid within 7 days of the order, otherwise the defaulting party or his Legal Practitioner may be denied further audience in the proceedings.
10. In addition to any penalty payable for default under these rules, the costs of and occasioned by any application to extend the time fixed by the rules or any direction or order thereunder, for delivering or filing any document or doing any other act, including the costs of any Order made on the application, shall be borne by the party making the application unless the Judge otherwise orders.
11. The Judge in exercising his discretion as to costs shall take into account any offer or contribution made by any of the parties and any payment into court and the amount of such payment.
12. (1) Where in any cause or matter anything is done or omission is made improperly or unnecessarily by or on behalf of a party, the Judge may direct that any costs to that party in respect of it shall not be allowed to him and that any costs occasioned by it to other parties shall be paid by him to them.

- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-rule 1 of this rule, the Judge, shall for the purpose of that sub-rule have regard in particular to the following matters, that is to say;
 - (a) the omission to do anything the doing of which would have been calculated to save costs;
 - (b) the doing of anything calculated to occasion or in a manner or at a time calculated to occasion unnecessary costs;
 - (c) any unnecessary delay in the proceedings.
 - (3) The Judge may instead of giving a direction under sub-rule 1 of this rule in relation to anything done or any omission made, direct the taxing officer to inquire into it and if it appears to him that such a direction as aforesaid should have been given in relation to it, to act as if the appropriate direction had been given.
13. (1) Subject to the following provisions of this rule, where in any proceedings costs are incurred improperly or without reasonable cause or are wasted by undue delay or by any other misconduct or default, the Judge may make against any Legal Practitioner whom he considers to be responsible whether personally or through a servant or agent an order;
 - (a) disallowing the costs as between the Legal Practitioner and his client; and
 - (b) directing the legal practitioner to pay to his client costs which the client has been ordered to pay to other parties to the proceedings; or
 - (c) directing the legal practitioner personally to indemnify such other parties against costs payable by them.
 - (2) The provisions of Rule 13 sub-rule 1 shall apply where proceedings in court cannot conveniently proceed or fail or are adjourned without useful progress being made;
 - (a) because of the failure of the Legal Practitioner to attend in person or by a proper representative; or
 - (b) because of the failure of the Legal Practitioner to deliver any document for the use of the Court which ought to have been delivered or to be prepared with any proper evidence or account or otherwise to proceed.
 - (3) No order under this rule shall be made against a Legal Practitioner unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity to appear before the Judge to show cause why the order should not be made.
 - (4) The Judge may direct that notice of any proceedings or order against a Legal Practitioner under this rule shall be given to his client in such manner as may be specified in the direction.
 - (5) If, on the taxation of costs to be paid out of a fund, one-sixth or more of the amount of the bill for those costs is taxed off, the Legal Practitioner whose bill it is shall not be allowed the fees to which he would otherwise be entitled for drawing the bill and for attending the taxation.
14. Every bill of costs (other than a bill delivered by a Legal Practitioner to his client which falls to be taxed under the Legal Practitioners Act) shall be referred to the Registrar for taxation and may be taxed by him or such other taxing officer as the chief judge may appoint.
15. The party applying for taxation shall file the bill and give notice to any other parties entitled to be heard on the taxation, and shall at the same, if he has not already done so, supply them with a copy of the bill.
16. A taxing officer shall have power to tax any costs the taxation of which is required by any law or directed by order of a Judge.
17. A taxing officer may, in the discharge of his functions with respect to taxation of costs;
 - (a) take an account of any dealings in money made in connection with the payment of the costs being taxed, if the Judge so directs;
 - (b) require any party represented jointly with any other party in any proceedings before him to be separately represented.
 - (c) examine any witness in those proceedings;
 - (d) direct the production of any document which may be relevant in connection with those proceedings.

18. (1) A taxing officer may;
- (a) extend the period within which a party is required by or under these rules to begin proceedings for taxation or to do anything in or in connection with proceedings before that officer;
 - (b) where no period is specified by or under these rules or by the Judge for the doing of anything in or in connection with such proceedings, specify the period within which the thing is to be done.
- (2) Where an order of the Court specifies a period within which anything is to be done by or before a taxing officer, then unless the Judge otherwise directs, the taxing officer may from time to time extend the period so specified on such terms as he deems fit.
- (3) A taxing officer may extend any such period as is referred to in the foregoing provisions of this Rule although the application for extension is not made until after the expiration of that period
19. Where a party entitled to be paid costs is also liable to pay costs, the taxing officer may;
- (a) tax the costs which that party is liable to pay and set off the amount allowed against the amount he is entitled to be paid and direct payment of any balance; or
 - (b) delay the issue of a certificate for the costs he is entitled to be paid until he has paid or tendered the amount he is liable to pay.
20. (1) A party entitled to require any costs to be taxed shall begin proceedings for the taxation of those costs by filing in the registry a bill of costs and obtain a day and time for the taxation thereof. Such party shall give at least 7 days notice to every other party of the day and time appointed for taxation proceedings and at the same time serve a copy of his bill of costs to the other party if he has not already done so.
- (2) A notice under sub-rule 1 of this Rule need not be given to any party who has not entered an appearance or taken any part in the proceedings which gave rise to the taxation proceedings.
21. (1) In any bill of costs the professional charge and the disbursements shall be entered in separate columns and every column shall be cast before the bill is left for taxation.
- (2) Before a bill of costs is left for taxation it shall be indorsed with:
- (a) the name or firm and business address of the Legal Practitioner whose bill it is; and
 - (b) if the Legal Practitioner is the agent of another, with the name or firm and business address of that other Legal Practitioner.
22. (1) If any party entitled to be heard in any taxation proceedings does not attend within a reasonable time after the time appointed for the taxation, the taxing officer, if satisfied by affidavit or otherwise that the party had due notice of the time appointed, may proceed with the taxation.
- (2) The taxing officer by whom any taxation proceedings are being conducted may, if he deems it necessary, adjourn those proceedings from time to time.
23. (1) Subject to Rule 20, and the following provisions of this rule, the scale of costs contained in Appendix II of the High Court of Lagos State (Fees Law) LSLN 6 of 2001 together with the notes and general provisions contained in that Appendix, shall apply to the taxation of all costs incurred in relation to contentious business done after the commencement of these rules.
- (2) Where the amount of a Legal Practitioner's remuneration in respect of non-contentious business connected with sales, purchases, leases, mortgages and other matters of conveyancing or in respect of any other non-contentious business is regulated, in the absence of agreement to the contrary, the amount of the costs to be allowed on taxation in respect of the like contentious business shall be the same, notwithstanding anything in the scale contained in the said appendix of these rules.
24. Upon the completion of the taxation of any bill of costs the taxing officer shall certify the result of his taxation including the costs thereof.
25. The fees payable on taxation shall be paid by the party on whose application the bill is taxed and shall allowed as part of the bill.

26. Any party to any taxation proceedings who is dissatisfied with the allowance and disallowance in whole or in part of any item by a taxing officer or with the amount allowed by a taxing officer in respect of any item, may apply to a Judge for an order to review the taxation as to that item.
27. (1) An application under the preceding rules shall be made by summons at any time within 14 days after the taxing officer's certificate.
 - (2) Unless the Judge otherwise directs, no further evidence shall be received on the hearing of an application under this rule, and no ground of objection shall be raised which was not raised on taxation but, save as aforesaid, on the hearing of any such application the Judge may exercise all such powers and discretion as are vested in the taxing officer in relation to the subject matter of the application.
 - (3) On an application under this rule the Judge may make such order as the circumstances require and in particular may order the taxing officer's decision to be amended or, except where the dispute as to the item under review is as to amount only, order the item to be remitted to the same or another taxing officer for taxation.

Order 50

I Business in Chambers

5. Without prejudice to Rule 16 of Order 13, any person not named as a defendant who is in occupation of the land and wishes to be heard on the question whether an order for possession should be made may apply at any stage of the proceedings to be joined as a defendant.
6.
 - (1) An order for possession in proceedings under this Order shall be in Form 39 with such variations as circumstances may require.
 - (2) The Judge may forthwith order a writ of possession to issue.
 - (3) Nothing in this order shall prevent the Judge from ordering possession to be given on a specified date, in the exercise of any power which could have been exercised if possession had been claimed in an action begun by writ.
7.
 - (1) No writ of possession to enforce an order for possession under this Order shall be issued after the expiration of 3 months from the date of the order without the leave of the Judge.
 - (2) The application for leave may be made ex parte unless the judge otherwise directs.
8.
 - (1) The Judge may, on such terms as he deems fit, set aside or vary any order made in proceedings under this Order.
 - (2) In this Order "landed property" means land with or without building thereon.

1. Where any application is made to the Judge for stay of execution or of proceedings under any judgment or decision appealed from, such application shall be made by notice of motion supported by affidavit setting forth the grounds upon which a stay of execution or proceedings is sought.
2. An applicant for stay of execution of a judgment shall compile the records of appeal within 90 days from the date of filing a notice of appeal and where the record is not so compiled, the respondent may apply to strike out the application or discharge the order if already granted.
3. (1) Application for stay of execution shall be regarded as an urgent matter.
(2) Where a Judge has struck out an application for stay, no further application for stay of execution shall be made in the same matter.
4. Where any application is made to the Judge under this order, a formal order shall be drawn up embodying the terms of the decision of the judge and bearing the date upon which the order is made.

Order 55
Probate and Administration.

Grant of Probate or Administration in General

1. (1) Subject to the provision of Rule 44 and 45 of this Order when any person subject to the jurisdiction of the Court dies, all petitions for the granting of any Letters of Administration of the estate of the deceased person, with or without a Will attached, and all applications on other matters connected therewith shall be made to the Probate Registrar of the Court.
(2) The Chief Judge shall request a Judge of any Judicial Division to take measures and make such orders as may appear necessary or expedient for the interim preservation of the property of the deceased within such Judicial Division, for the discovery or preservation of the Will of the deceased or for any other purposes connected with the duties of the Court under this Order, and every Judge shall carry out such request as far as practicable and report to the Chief Judge.
(3) No grant of administration with the Will annexed shall issue within 7 days of the death of the deceased; and no grant of administration without the Will annexed, shall issue within 14 days of such death.
2. The Judge shall, when the circumstances of the case appear so to require, forthwith on the death of a person, or as soon after as may be, appoint and authorize an officer of the Court, or some other fit person, to take possession of his property within its jurisdiction or put it under seal and so keep it until it can be dealt with according to law.
3. If any person other than the person named executor or administrator, or an officer of the Court, or person authorized by the Judge, takes possession of and administers or otherwise deals with the property of any deceased person, he shall, besides the other liabilities he may incur, be liable to a fine not less than ₦50,000.00 (fifty thousand naira) as the Judge having regard to the condition of the person so interfering with the property and the other circumstances of the case may deem fit to impose.
4. Any person having in his possession or under his control any paper or writing of any person deceased, being or purporting to be testamentary, shall forthwith deliver the original to the Probate Registrar of the Court. If any person fails to do so within 3 months after having had knowledge of the death of the deceased he may be liable to a fine of ₦5,000.00 (five thousand naira) as the Judge having regard to the condition of such person in default and other circumstances of the case deem fit to impose.
5. Where it appears that any paper of the deceased, being or purporting to be testamentary is in the possession of, or under the control of any person, a Judge may upon an ex parte application whether a suit or proceeding respecting probate or administration is pending or not order him to produce the paper and bring it into Court.
6. Where it appears that there are reasonable grounds for believing that any person had knowledge of any paper being or purporting to be testamentary although it is not shown that the paper is in his possession or under his control, a Judge may upon an ex parte application, whether a suit or proceedings in respect of probate or administration is pending or not, order that he be examined in respect of the same in Court, or on interrogatories, and that he attend for that purpose, and after examination that he produce the paper and bring it into court.

7. The Judge may on the application of any person claiming an interest under a Will, give notice to the executors therein named, to come in prove the Will, or to renounce probate, and they, or some or one of them, shall within 21 days after notice, come in and prove or renounce accordingly.
8. If any person named executor in the Will of the deceased takes possession and administers or otherwise deals with any part of the property of the deceased, and does not apply for probate within 3 months after the death, or after the termination of any suit for or dispute in respect of probate or administration, he may, independently of any other liability be deemed to be in contempt of court, and shall be liable to such fine not less than ₦50,000.00 (fifty thousand naira) as the Judge deems fit to impose.
9. The Judge shall require evidence, in addition to that offered by the applicant, where additional evidence in that behalf seems to the Judge necessary or desirable, in regard to that behalf seems to the Judge necessary or desirable, in regard to the identity of the deceased or of the applicant, or in regard to the relationships of the applicant to the deceased, or in regard to any person or persons in existence with a right equal or prior to that of the applicant to the grant of probate or administration sought by the applicant or in regard to any other matter which may be considered by the Judge relevant to the question whether the applicant is the proper person to whom the grant should be made;

Provided that the Judge may refuse the grant unless the applicant produces the required evidence on these point or any of them as required by the Judge.

10. Where it appears to the Judge that some person or persons other than the applicant may have at least an equal right with the applicant to the grant sought, the Judge may refuse the grant until due notice of the application has been given to such other person or persons and an opportunity given for such person or persons to be heard in respect of the application.

Provided that the Judge may in his discretion refuse the grant unless and until all persons entitled to the grant in priority to the applicant shall have expressly renounced their prior right.

11. Every applicant for a grant of Letters of Administration shall file in the court a true declaration of all the Personal property of the deceased and the value thereof;

Provided that for the purpose of the fees payable on Letters of Administration, the value of the property in respect of which the grant is made shall be deemed not to include;

- (a) any gratuity payable by the Government of the Federation of Nigeria or of a state, to the estate of any person formerly employed by either or such Governments or by a Statutory corporation;
- (b) any sum of money payable to an estate from a Provident Fund established under the provisions of any applicable law.

12. All inquires a Judge sees fit to institute shall be answered to his satisfaction before the issuance of Letters of Administration. The Judge shall afford as great a facility for the obtaining of Letters of Administration as is consistent with due regard to the prevention of error and fraud.
13. Suits in respect of administration shall be instituted and carried on as nearly as may be in the like manner and subject to the same rules of procedure as suits in respect of ordinary claims.
14. Any person may deposit his Will for safe custody in the Probate Registry, sealed under his own seal and the seal of the Court.
15. Every original Will, of which probate or administration with Will annexed is granted, shall be filed and kept in the Probate Registry in such manner as to secure at once its due preservation and convenient inspection. A copy of every such Will and of the probate or administration shall be persevered in the Registry.
16. No original Will shall be given out for any purpose without the direction in writing of a Judge. A certified transcript under the seal of the court of the probate or administration with the Will annexed may be obtained from the court.
17. (1) On receiving an application for administration with Will annexed, a Judge shall inspect the Will, and see whether it appears to be signed by the testator or by some other person in his presence, and by his direction, and subscribed by two witnesses according to the applicable law, and shall not proceed further if the Will does not appear to be so signed and subscribed.
(2) If the Will appears to be so signed and subscribed, the Judge shall then refer to the attestation clause and consider whether the wording thereof states the Will to have been in fact executed in accordance with those enactments.

18. (1) Where a Will contains no attestation clause or the attestation clause is insufficient or where it appears to the Judge that there is some doubt about the due execution of the Will, he shall before admitting it to proof, require an affidavit as to the due execution from one or more of the attesting witnesses or, if no attesting witness is conveniently available, from any other person who was present at the time the Will was executed.
- (2) If no affidavit can be obtained in accordance with the last foregoing paragraph, the Judge may, if he deems fit having regard to the desirability of protecting the interest of any person who may be prejudiced by the Will, accept evidence on affidavit from any person he may deem fit to show that the signature on the Will is the handwriting of the deceased, or of any other matter which may raise a presumption in favour of the due execution of the Will.
- (3) If the Judge, after considering the evidence is satisfied that the Will was not duly executed, he shall refuse probate and shall mark the Will accordingly.
19. Where both the subscribing witnesses are dead or if from other circumstances such an affidavit cannot be obtained from either of them, resort for such an affidavit shall be had to other persons present at the execution of the Will; but if no such affidavit can be obtained, proof shall be required for that fact, and of the handwriting of the deceased and of the subscribing witnesses, and also of any circumstances raising a presumption in favour of the due execution of the Will.
20. (1) Where in a Will, there is any obliteration, interlineations or other alteration which is not authenticated in the manner prescribed by law or by the re-execution of the Will or the execution of a codicil, the Judge shall require evidence to show whether the alteration was present at the time the Will was executed and shall give directions as to the form in which the Will is to be proved;
- provided that this sub-rule shall not apply to any alteration which appears to the Judge to be of no practical importance.
- (2) Where from any mark on the Will it appears to the Judge that some other document has been attached to the Will or if a Will contains any reference to another document in such terms as to suggest that it ought to be incorporated in the Will, the Judge may require the document to be produced any may call for such evidence in respect of the attachment or incorporation of the document as he may deem fit.
- (3) Where there is doubt as to the date on which a Will was executed, the Judge may require such evidence as he deems necessary to establish the date.
21. Any appearance of attempted revocation of a Will by burning, tearing or otherwise and every other circumstance leading to a presumption of revocation by the testator, shall be accounted for to the satisfaction of the Judge.
22. The Judge may require an affidavit from any person he may deem fit for the purpose of satisfying himself as to any of the matters referred to in Rules 18, 20 and 21. In any such affidavit sworn by an attesting witness or other person present at the time of the execution of a Will, the deponent shall depose to the manner in which the Will was executed.
23. Where it appears to the Judge that there is prima facie evidence that a Will is one to which Section 9 of the Wills Act 1837 or any provision of the equivalent enactment in force in the State applies, the Will may be admitted to proof if the Judge is satisfied that it was made by the testator in accordance with the provisions of that section or enactment as the case may be.
24. Where evidence of foreign law is required on any application for a grant, the Judge may accept an affidavit from any person whom, having regard to the particulars of his knowledge or experience given in the affidavit, he regards as suitably qualified to give expert evidence of the law in question.
25. Where the deceased died after the commencement of this Order, the person or persons entitled to a grant of probate or administration with the Will annexed shall be determined in accordance with the following order of priority;
- (a) the executor;
- (b) any residuary legatee or devisee holding in trust for any other person;
- (c) any residuary legatee or devisee for life;
- (d) the ultimate residuary legatee or devisee, including one entitled on the happening of any contingency or where the residue is not wholly disposed of by the Will, any person entitled to share in the residue not so disposed of, or the personal representative of any such person;

provided that:

- i. unless the Judge otherwise directs, a residuary legatee or devisee whose legacy or devise is vested in interest shall be preferred to one entitled on the happening of a contingency; and
 - ii. Where the residue is not in terms wholly disposed of, the Judge may, if he is satisfied that the testator has nevertheless disposed of the whole or substantially the whole of the estate as ascertained at the time of the application for the grant, allow a grant to be made subject to Rule 68 of this Order to any legatee or devisee entitled to, or to a share in the estate so disposed of, without regard to the persons entitled to share in any residue not disposed of by the Will;
- (e) any specific legatee or devisee or any creditor or, subject to sub-rule 3 of Rule 59, the personal representatives of any such person or where the estate is not wholly disposed of by Will, any person who, notwithstanding that the amount of the estate is such that he has no immediate beneficial interest therein, may have a beneficial interest in the event of an accretion to it;
 - (f) any specific legatee or devisee entitled on the happening of any contingency, or any person having no interest under the Will who would have been entitled to a grant if the deceased had died wholly intestate.
26. (1) An application to join with a person entitled to a grant of administration, a person entitled in a lower degree shall, in default of renunciation by all persons entitled in priority to the latter, be made to the Judge and shall be supported by an affidavit by the person entitled, the consent of the person proposed to be joined as personal representative and such other evidence as the Judge may require;
- (2) An application to join with a person entitled to a grant of administration, a person having no right to it, shall be made to the Judge and shall be supported by an affidavit by the person entitled, the consent of the person proposed to be joined as personal representative and such other evidence as the Judge may require;
- provided that there may, without such application be joined with a person entitled to administration;
- (a) on the renunciation of all other persons entitled to join in the grant, any kin of the deceased having no beneficial interest in the estate;
 - (b) unless the Judge otherwise directs, any person whom the guardian of a minor may nominate for the purpose;
 - (c) a trust corporation.
27. Where the testator was blind or illiterate, the Judge shall not grant administration with the Will annexed, unless the Judge is first satisfied, by proof or by what appears on the face of the Will, that the will was read over to the deceased before its execution or that he had at that time knowledge of its contents.
28. (1) The Judge, on being satisfied that the Will was duly executed, shall carefully inspect it to see whether there are any interlineations, alterations, erasures, or obliterations appearing in it and requiring to be accounted for.
- (2) Interlineations, alterations, erasures, and obliterations are invalid unless they existed in the Will at the time of its execution or unless, if made afterwards, they have been executed and attested in the mode required by the said enactments; or unless they have been made valid by the re-execution of the Will or by the subsequent execution of some codicil thereto.
- (3) Where interlineations, alterations, erasures, or obliterations appear in the Will, unless duly executed or recited in or otherwise identified by the attestation clause, an affidavit in proof of their having existed in the Will before its execution shall be filed.
- (4) Where no satisfactory evidence is adduced respecting the time when an erasure or obliteration was made and the words erased or obliterated are not entirely effaced, and can, on inspection of the Will, be ascertained, they shall form part of the probate. Where any words have been erased which might have been of importance, an affidavit shall be required.
29. (1) Where a Will contains a reference to any document of such a nature as to raise the question whether it ought or ought not to form a constituent part of the Will, the Judge shall require the production of the document, with a view to ascertaining whether or not it is entitled to probate; and if it is not produced, a satisfactory account of its non production shall be given. A document cannot form part of a Will unless it was in existence at the time when the Will was executed.
- (2) If there are vestiges of sealing wax or wafers, or other marks on the Will, leading to the inference that some document has been at sometime annexed or attached thereto, a satisfactory account of them shall be required, and if it is not produced, a satisfactory account of its non production shall be given.

30. Where a person appointed executor in a Will survives the testator but either dies without having taken probate or having been called on by the court to take probate and does not appear, his right in respect of the executorship wholly ceases; and, further renunciation, the representation to the testator and the administration of his property may go and be committed as if that person had not been appointed executor.
31. Every Will in respect of which an application for a grant is made shall be marked by the signatures of the applicant and the person before whom the oath is sworn, and shall be exhibited to any affidavit which may be required under this Order as to the validity, terms, condition or date of execution of the Will:

Provided that where the Judge is satisfied that compliance with this Rule might result in the loss of the Will, he may allow a photocopy to be marked or exhibited in lieu of the original document.

32. In every case where evidence is directed or allowed to be given by affidavit, the judge may require the personal attendance of the deponent if within the jurisdiction, before the Court, to be examined viva voce respecting the content of his affidavit. The examination may take place before any affidavit has been sworn or prepared if the Judge deems fit.
33. (1) The Judge in granting Letters of Administration shall proceed as for may be as in cases of probate.
- (2) The Judge shall ascertain the time and place of the deceased's death and the value of the property to be covered by the administration.
34. (1) The person to whom administration is granted shall give a bond with two or more responsible sureties to the satisfaction of the Judge. The bond shall affirm that the administrator shall be duly conditioned to collect, getting in and administering the personal property of the deceased.
- (2) The Judge may if it deems fit take one surety only where the gross value of the estate does not exceed ₦250,000.00 (two hundred and fifty thousand naira) or where a corporation is proposed as a surety.
- (3) The bond shall be in form of a penalty which is twice the sum value of the estate of the deceased unless the Judge deems it expedient to reduce the amount.
- (4) The Judge may also in any case direct that more bonds than one shall be given, so as to limit the liability of any surety to such amount as the Court deems reasonable.
35. (1) The Judge shall not require a guarantee as a condition of making a grant where it is proposed to make it:
- (a) by virtue of Rule 25(e) to a creditor or the personal representative of a creditor or to a person who has no immediate beneficial interest in the estate of the deceased but may have such interest in the event of an accretion to the estate;
- (b) under Rule 61 to a person or some of the persons who would, if the person beneficially entitled to the whole of the estate died interstate be entitled to his estate;
- (c) under Rule 63 to the attorney of a person entitled to a grant;
- (d) under Rule 64 for the use and benefit of a minor;
- (e) under Rule 66 for the use and benefit of a person who by reason of mental or physical incapacity is incapable of managing his affairs;
- (f) to an applicant who appears to the Judge to be resident elsewhere than in the State; or
- (g) except where the Judge considers that there are special circumstances making it desirable to require a guarantee.
- (2) Notwithstanding that it is proposed to make a grant as aforesaid, a guarantee shall not be required, except in special circumstances, on an application for administration where the applicant or one of the applicants is the Administrator-General or a trust corporation.
- (3) Every guarantee entered into by a surety for the purpose of the Order shall be in Probate Form 1 with such variations as circumstances may require.
- (4) Except where the surety is a corporation, the signature of the surety on every such guarantee shall be attested by an authorized officer, commissioner for oaths or other person authorized by law to administer an oath.
- (5) Unless the Registrar otherwise directs:

- (a) if it is decided to require a guarantee, it shall be given by two sureties, except where the gross value of the estate does not exceed ₦250,000.00 (Two hundred and fifty thousand naira) or a corporation is a proposed surety and in those cases one will suffice;
 - (b) no person shall be accepted as a surety unless he is resident in the State;
 - (c) no officer of the judiciary shall be a surety;
 - (d) the limit of the liability of the surety or sureties under a guarantee shall be the gross amount of the estate as sworn on the application for the grant;
 - (e) every surety other than a corporation, shall justify his eligibility.
- (6) Where the proposed surety is a corporation, there shall be filed an affidavit by the proper officer of the corporation to the effect that it has power to act as surety and has executed the guarantee in the manner prescribed by its constitution, and containing sufficient information as to the financial position of the corporation as to satisfy the Judge that its assets are sufficient to satisfy all claims which may be made against it under any guarantee which it has given or is likely to give.
36. The Judge may, on being satisfied that the condition of the bond has been broken, assign to some person, and that person may thereupon sue on the bond in his own name as if it had been originally given to him, and may recover thereon, as trustee for persons interested the full amount recoverable in respect of any breach of the bond.
37. Any person claiming to be a creditor or legatee or the next of kin or one of the next of kin of a deceased may apply for and obtain a summons from the Court requiring the executor or administrator, as the case may be, of the deceased to attend the Court and show cause why an order for the administration of the property of the deceased should not be made.
38. (1) On proof of service of the summons or on appearance of the executor or administrator, and on proof of all such other things (if any) as the Judge may direct, the Judge may, if he deems fit, make an order for the administration of the property of the deceased.
- (2) The Judge may make or refuse any such order or to give any special directions in respect of the carriage or execution of it and where there are applications for such an order by two or more different persons or classes of persons, to grant the same to such one or more of the claimants or classes of claimants, as the Judge deems fit.
- (3) Where the Judge deems fit the carriage of the order may subsequently be given to such person, and such terms, as he may direct.
39. Where the Judge makes such an order or at any time afterwards, he may, if he deems fit, make any further or other order which may appear requisite to secure the proper collection, recovery for safe keeping and disposal of the property or any part thereof.
40. In a case of intestacy, where the special circumstances of the case require, the Judge may, if he deems fit on the application of any person having interest in the estate of the deceased or of his own notion, grant Letters of Administration to an officer of the Court, to a Consular Officer or to a person in the service of the Government.
41. (1) The officer or person so appointed shall act under the direction of the Judge shall be indemnified thereby.
- (2) The Judge shall require and compel him to file in the Court the accounts of his administration at intervals not exceeding 12 months.
42. Where a person has died interstate as to his personal estate or leaving a Will affecting personal estate, but without having appointed an executor thereof willing and competent to take probate or where the executor shall, at the time of the death of such person, be resident out of the jurisdiction, and it shall appear to the Judge to be necessary or convenient in any such case to appoint some person as administrator of the estate of the deceased or of any part thereof, the Judge may appoint such person as he shall deem fit to be such administrator upon his giving such security, if any as the Judge shall direct, and every such administrator may be limited as the Judge shall deem fit.
43. The Judge may direct that any administrator (with or without the Will annexed) shall receive out the personal and real estate of the deceased such reasonable remuneration as he shall deem fit not exceeding 10% per centum on the amount of the realized property, or, when not converted into money, on the value of the property duly administered and accounted for by him:

Provided that where the Judge is satisfied that by reason of exceptional circumstances the administration of the property has required an extraordinary amount of labour to be bestowed on it, he may allow in respect of such property a higher rate of remuneration.

44. Where any citizen of any foreign country dies within the jurisdiction without leaving within the jurisdiction a widower, widow or next of kin, the Probate Registrar shall collect and secure all moneys and other property belonging to the deceased, and shall then inform the nearest consular officer of such country of the death, and transmit to him a list of the money and property of the deceased.
45. Application may be made to the Court by any such Consular Officer or by any person authorized by him in writing and under the consular seal, for leave to administer the estate of the deceased, and the Judge may make such order as to security for payment of debts and the method of administration as the Judge shall deem fit, and vary such order when and so often as it is expedient.
46.
 - (1) Every person to whom a grant of probate or Letter of Administration shall have been made, and every administrator appointed by the Judge shall, file in court the accounts of his administration every 12 months from the date of the grant or the appointment until the completion of the administration.
 - (2) Any executor or administrator who fails to file his accounts within the prescribed period as aforesaid shall be liable to a penalty of ₦100.00 (one hundred naira) for every day of default. A fine for non-payment shall be enforceable by distress, and failing sufficient distress, by imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.
 - (3) When an account is filed in Court under this rule, the Judge shall scrutinize such account and if it appears to the Judge that by reason of improper, unvouched or unjustifiable entries or otherwise such account is not a full and proper account, the Judge shall require the person filing the account to remedy such defects as there may be within such time as the Judge may deem reasonable for the purpose; and on failure to remedy such defects within such time, the person who filed such defective account shall be deemed to have failed to file an account with the meaning of this rule and proceedings may be taken against such person accordingly.
 - (4) The Probate Register to bring to the notice of the Judge the fact that any executor or administrator has failed to file his accounts as required by this Rule.
 - (5) The Judge may, on the motion of any party interested, or suo motu, summon any executor or administrator failing as aforesaid, to show cause why he should not be punished.
 - (6) The Judge may for good cause shown extend the time for such filing of accounts.
 - (7) Any executor or administrator who has been granted an extension of time to file such accounts, who fails within such extended time to file such accounts, shall be liable to the penalty set out above, and the procedure for bringing him before the Court shall be as set out above.
 - (8) The accounts shall be open to the inspection of any person who satisfies the Registrar that he is interested in the administration.
 - (9) In this rule, the word "accounts" shall mean and include an inventory, an account of the administration, the vouchers in the hands of the executor or administrator relating thereto and an affidavit in verification.
47. The Judge may refuse to entertain any application under Rule 2 of this Order if he considers that there has been unreasonable delay by the applicant in making the application.
48. The grant of Letters Administration under this Order shall be signed by the Registrar on Behalf of the Court.

II

Probate (Non-Contentious) procedure

49. In this Part, Rules 1,4,5,6,7,8,11,12,14,15,16,17,19,26,27,28,29,30,31,71 (1) and 72 (1) or (4) of this Order shall also apply.
50. Every Legal Practitioner through whom an application for a grant is made shall give the address of his place of business within the Jurisdiction.
51.
 - (1) An applicant for a grant may apply in person.

- (2) A personal applicant may not apply through an agent whether paid or unpaid, and may not be represented by any person acting or appearing to act as his adviser.
 - (3) No personal application shall be received or proceeded with if:
 - (a) It becomes necessary to bring the matter before the Court by motion or by action;
 - (b) an application has already been made by a Legal Practitioner on behalf of the applicant and has not been withdrawn;
 - (c) the Judge otherwise directs.
 - (4) After a Will has been deposited in the Registry by a personal applicant, it may not be delivered to the applicant or to any other person unless in special circumstances the Judge so directs.
 - (5) A personal applicant shall produce a certificate of the death of the deceased or such other evidence of the death as the Judge may approve.
 - (6) A personal applicant shall supply all information to enable the papers leading to the grant to be prepared in the Registry or may himself prepare such papers and lodge them unsworn.
 - (7) Unless the Judge otherwise directs, every oath, affidavit or guarantee required of a personal application shall be sworn or executed by all the deponents or sureties before an authorized officer.
- 52. (1) The Judge shall not allow any grant to issue until all inquiries which he may deem fit to make have been answered to his satisfaction.
- (2) The Judge may require proof of the identity of the deceased or of the applicant for the grant beyond those contained in the Oath.
 - (3) No grant of probate or of administration with the Will annexed shall issue within 3 months of the death of the deceased; and no grant of administration (not with the Will annexed) shall issue within 3 months of such death.
- 53. (1) Every application for a grant shall be supported by an oath in the form applicable to the circumstances of the case, which shall be contained in an affidavit sworn by the applicant, and by such other paper as the Judge may require.
- (2) Unless otherwise directed by the Judge, the oath shall state where the deceased was domiciled at the time of death.
- 54. Where it is necessary to describe the deceased in a grant by some name in addition to his true name, the applicant shall state in the oath the true name of the deceased and shall depose that some part of the estate, specifying it, was held in the other name; or as to any other reason that there may be for the inclusion of the other name in the grant.
- 55. (1) Where the Registrar considers that in any particular case a photocopy of the original Will would not be satisfactory for purpose of record, he may require that an engrossment suitable for photo reproduction be lodged.
- (2) .Where a Will contains alterations which are not admissible to proof, there shall be lodged an engrossment of the Will in the form in which it is to be proved.
 - (3) Any engrossment lodged under this rule shall reproduce the punctuation, spacing and division into paragraphs of the Will and, if it is one to which sub-rule 2 of the rule applies, it shall be made book wise on durable paper following continuously from page to page.
 - (4) Where any pencil writing appears on a Will, there shall be lodged a copy of the Will or of the pages or sheets containing the pencil writing in which there shall be underlined in red ink those portions which appear in pencil in the original.
- 56. Where a gift to any person fails by reason of the fact that he is an attesting witness or the spouse of an attesting witness, such person shall not have any right to a grant as a beneficiary named in the Will, without prejudice to his right to a grant in any other capacity.
- 57. (1) Where all the persons entitled to the estate of the deceased under a Will have assigned their whole interest in the estate to one or more persons, the assignee or assignees shall replace in order of priority for a grant of probate the assignor or if there are two or more assignors, the assignors with the highest priority, in the absence of a proving executor.

- (2) Where there are two or more assignees, probate may be granted with the consent of the others to any one or more but not exceeding four of them.
 - (3) In any case where probate is applied for by an assignee, a copy of the instrument of assignment shall be lodged in the Registry.
- 58.
 - (1) An application to add a personal representative shall be made to the Judge and shall be supported by an affidavit by the personal applicant, the consent of the person proposed to be added as personal representative and such other evidence as the Judge may require.
 - (2) On any such application the Judge may direct that a note shall be made on the original grant of the addition of a further personal representative, or he may impound or revoke the grant or more such order as the circumstances of the case may require.
- 59.
 - (1) A grant may be made to any person entitled thereto without notice to other persons entitled in the same degree.
 - (2) A dispute between persons entitled to a grant in the same degree shall be brought by application before the Judge
 - (3) If an application under this rule is brought before the Judge, he shall not allow any grant to be sealed until such application is finally disposed of.
 - (4) Unless the Judge otherwise directs, administration shall be granted to a living person in preference to the personal representative of a deceased person who would, if living, be entitled in the same degree and to a person not under disability in preference to an infant entitled in the same degree.
- 60.
 - (1) Nothing in rules 57, 60 or 62 shall operate to prevent a grant being made to any person to whom a grant may, or may require to be made under any enactment.
 - (2) The rules mentioned in the last foregoing paragraph shall not apply where the deceased died domiciled outside the State, except in a case to which the provisions of Rule 63 applies.
- 61. When the beneficial interest in the whole estate of the deceased is vested absolutely in a person who has renounced his right to a grant of administration with the Will attached and has consented to such administration being granted to the person or person who would be entitled to his estate if the himself had died intestate, administration may be granted to such person or one or more but not exceeding four of such persons;

Provided that a surviving spouse shall not be regarded as person in whom the estate has vested absolutely unless the would be entitled to the whole of the estate, whatever its value may be.
- 62. Where the deceased was domiciled outside the State, the Judge may order that a grant should issue;
 - (a) to the person entrusted with the administration of the estate by the Court having jurisdiction at the place where the deceased died domiciled;
 - (b) to the person entitled to administer the estate by the law of the place where the deceased died domiciled;
 - (c) if there is no such person as in mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of this rule or if in the opinion of the Judge the circumstances so require, to such person as the Judge may direct;
 - (d) if a grant required to be made to, or if the Judge in his discretion considers that a grant should be made to, not less than two administrators, to such person as the Judge as the registrar may direct jointly with any such person as in mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of this rule or with any other person;provided that without any such order as aforesaid;
 - (a) probate of any Will which is admissible to proof may be granted;
 - (i) Where the Will is English or in the local language, to the executor named therein;
 - (ii) if the Will described the duties of a named person in terms sufficient to constitute him executor according to the tenor of the will, to that person;
 - (b) where the whole of the estate in the State consists of immovable property, a grant limited thereto may be made in accordance with the law that would have been applicable if the deceased had died domiciled in the State.

- 63 (1). Where a person entitled to a grant resides outside the State, a grant may be made to his lawful attorney for his use and benefit, until such person shall obtain a grant or in such other way as the Judge may direct;
- Provide that where the person so entitled is an executor, administration shall not be granted to his attorney without notice to the other executors, if any.
- (2) where the Judge is satisfied by affidavit that it is desirable for a grant to be made to the lawful attorney of a person entitled to a grant and resident in the State, he may direct the grant to be made to the attorney for the use and benefit of such person, until such person obtains a grant or in such other way as the Judge may direct.
- 64. (1) Where the person to whom a grant would otherwise be made is a minor, a grant for his use and benefit until he attains the age of 18 years shall subject to sub-rules 3 and 5 of this rule, be granted;
- (a) to both parents of the minor jointly or to any guardian appointed by a Judge; or
- (b) where there is no such guardian able and willing to act and the minor has attained the age of 16 years, to any next of kin nominated by the minor, or where the minor is a married woman, to any such next to kin or to her spouse if nominated by her.
- (2) Any person nominated under sub-rule 1(b) of this rule may represent any other minor whose next of kin he is, being a minor below the age of 16 years entitled in the same degree as the minor who made the nomination
- (3) Notwithstanding anything in this rule, administration for the use and benefit of the minor until he attains the age of 18 years may be granted to any person assigned as guardian by order of a Court in default of , or jointly with, or to the exclusion of any such person as is mentioned in sub-rule 1 of this rule; and such an order may be made on application by the intended guardian, who shall file an affidavit in support of the application and if required by the Court, an affidavit of fitness sworn by a responsible person.
- (4) Where a grant is required to be made to less than two persons and there is only one person competent and willing to take a grant under the foregoing provisions of this rule, a grant may, unless the Judge otherwise directs, be made to such person jointly with any other person nominated by him as a fit and proper person to take the grant.
- (5) Where a minor who is sole executor has no interest in the residuary estate of the deceased, administration with the Will attached for the use and benefit of the minor until he attains the age of 18 years shall, unless the Judge otherwise directs, be granted to the person entitled to the residuary estate.
- (6) A minor's right to administration may be renounced only by a person assigned as guardian under sub-rule 3 of this rule and authorized to renounced by the Judge.
- 65. (1) Where one of several executors is a minor, probate may be granted to the adult executors, with power reserved for making the like grant to the minor on his attaining of the age of 18 years and administration for the use and benefit of the minor until he attains the age of 18 years may be granted under Rule 64 only if the adult executors renounce or, on being cited to accept or refuse a grant, fail to make an effective application.
- (2) A minor executor's right to probate on attaining the age of 18 years shall not be renounced by any person on his behalf.
- 66. (1) Where the Judge is satisfied that a person entitled to grant is by reason of mental or physical infirmity incapable of managing his affairs, a grant for his use and benefit, during his incapacity may be made:
- (a) in the case of mental incapacity to the person authorized by the Judge to apply for the grant;
- (b) where there is no person so authorized or in the case of physical incapacity:
- i. if the person incapable is entitled as executor and has no interest in the residuary estate of the deceased to the person entitled to such residuary estate;
- ii. where the person incapable is entitled otherwise than as executor or is an executor having an interest in the residuary estate of the deceased, to the person who would be entitled to a grant in respect of his estate if he had died intestate; or to such other person as the Judge may be order direct.
- (2) Unless the Judge otherwise directs, no grant shall be made under this rule unless all persons entitled in the same degree as the person incapable have been considered and excluded.

- (3) where legal disability arise out of unsoundness of mind or insanity, notice of intended application for a grant under this rule shall, unless the Judge otherwise directs, be given to his guardian.
 - (4) where there is physical disability notice of intended application for a grant under this rule shall unless the Judge otherwise directs, be given to the person alleged to be incapable.
- 67. (1) Renunciation of probate by an executor shall not operate as renunciation of any right which he may have to a grant of administration in some other capacity unless he expressly renounces such right.
- (2) Unless the Judge otherwise directs, no person who has renounced a grant in one capacity may obtain a grant in some other capacity.
 - (3) A renunciation of probate or administration may be retracted at any time on the order of the Judge:

Provided that only in exceptional circumstances may leave be given to an executor to retract a renunciation of probate after a grant has been made to such other person entitled in a lower degree.
- 68. Where the State is or may be beneficially interested in the estate of a deceased person, notice of intended application for a grant shall be given by the applicant to the Lagos State Attorney- General and the Judge may direct that no grant shall issue within a specified time after the notice has been given.
- 69. (1) An application for the resealing of probate or administration with the Will attached granted by a Court outside the State shall be made by the person to whom the grant was made or by any person authorized in writing to apply on his behalf.
- (2) On any such application:
 - (a) an Inland Revenue Affidavit shall be lodged as if the application were one for a grant in the State;
 - (b) the application shall be advertised in such manner as the Judge may direct and shall be supported by an oath sworn by the person making the application.
 - (3) On an application for the resealing of such a grant:
 - (a) the Judge shall not require sureties except where it appears to him that the grant is made for a purpose mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (f) of Rule 35 (1) or except where he considers that there are special circumstances making it desirable to require sureties;
 - (b) Rule 35 (2), (4), (5), (6) and 51(4) shall apply with any necessary modifications; and
 - (c) a guarantee entered into by a surety shall be in Probate Form 2 with such variations as circumstances may require.
 - (4) Except by leave of the Judge, no grant shall be released unless it was made to such a person as is mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of Rule 62 or to a person to whom a grant could be made under a proviso to that rule.
 - (5) No limited or temporary grant shall be resealed except leave of the Judge.
 - (6) Every grant lodged for resealing shall include a copy of any Will to which the grant relates or shall be accompanied by a copy certified as correct by or under the authority of the Court by which the grant was made.
 - (7) The Registrar shall send notice of the resealing to the Court which made the grant.
 - (8) Where notice is received in the Registry from outside the State of the resealing of a grant made in the State, notice of any amendment or revocation of the grant shall be sent to the Court by which it was resealed.
- 70. If a Judge is satisfied that a grant shall be amended or revoked he may make an order accordingly.

Provided that except in special circumstances no grant shall be amended or revoked under this rule except on the application or with the consent of the person to whom the grant was made.
- 71. (1) A notice to prohibit a grant of administration may be filed in Court.

- (2) Any person who wishes to ensure that no grant is sealed without notice himself may enter a caveat in the Registry
- (3) Any person who wishes to enter a caveat, in this rule called "the caveator", may do so by completing Probate Form 3 in the appropriate book at the Registry and obtaining an acknowledgement of entry from the proper officer, or by sending through the post at his own risk notice in Form 3 to the Registry in which he wishes the caveat to be entered.
- (4) Where the caveat is entered by a legal Practitioner on behalf of the caveators the name of the caveator shall be stated in Probate Form 4.
- (5) Except as otherwise provided by this rule, a caveat shall remain in force for 3 months from the date on which it is entered and shall then cease to have effect, without prejudice to the entry of a further caveat or caveats.
- (6) The Registrar shall maintain an index of caveats entered in the Registry and on receiving an application for a grant in the Registry he shall cause the index to be searched and shall notify the applicant in the event of any caveat having been entered against the sealing of a grant for which application has been made.
- (7) The Registrar shall not allow any grant to be sealed if he has knowledge of an effective caveat in respect thereof;

Provided that no caveat shall operate to prevent the sealing of a grant on the day on which the caveat is entered.

- (8) A warning in Probate Form 5 may issue from the Registry against a caveator at the instance of any person interested; in this rule called "the person warning", which shall state his interest and, if he claims under a Will, the date of the Will, and shall require the caveator to give particulars of any contrary interest which he may have in the estate of the deceased; and every warning or a copy thereof shall be served on the caveator.
- (9) A caveator having an interest contrary to that of the person warning may, within 8 days of service of the warning upon him inclusive of the day of such service; or at any time thereafter if no affidavit has been filed under sub-rule 12 of this rule, enter an appearance in the Registry by filing Probate Form 6 and making an entry in the appropriate book, and shall forthwith thereafter serve on the person warning a copy of Probate Form 6 sealed of the Registry.
- (10) A caveator who has not entered an appearance to a warning may at any time withdraw his caveat by giving notice at the Registry and the caveat shall then cease to have effect and if he has been warned, the caveator shall forthwith give notice of withdrawal of the caveat to the person warning.
- (11) A caveator having no interest contrary to that of the person warning but wishing to show cause against the sealing of a grant to that person may, within 8 days of service of the warning upon him inclusive of the day of such service, or at any time thereafter if no affidavit has been filed under sub-rule 12 of this rule, issue and serve a notice, which shall be returnable before the Registrar.
- (12) If the time limited for appearance has expired and the caveator has not entered an appearance, the person warning may file in the Registry an affidavit showing that the warning was duly served and that he has not received a summons for directions under the last foregoing sub-rule, and thereupon the caveat shall cease to have effect.
- (13) Upon commencement of a probate action the Probate Registrar shall, if a caveat is in force other than a caveat entered by the claimant, give to the caveator notice of the commencement of the action and, upon the subsequent entry of a caveat at any time when the action is pending, shall likewise notify the caveator of the existence of the action.
- (14) Unless the Judge otherwise directs;
 - (a) any caveat in force at the commencement of proceedings by way of citation or motion shall, unless withdrawn pursuant to sub-rule 9 of this rule, remain in force until an application for a grant is made by the person shown to be entitled thereto by the decision of the court in such proceedings, and upon such application any caveat entered by a party who had notice of the proceedings shall cease to have effect;
 - (b) any caveat in respect of which an appearance to a warning has been entered shall remain in force until the commencement of a probate action;

- (c) the commencement of a probate action shall whether or not any caveat has been entered, operate to prevent the sealing of a grant until application for a grant is made by the person shown to be entitled thereto by the decision of the Judge in such action, and upon such application any caveat entered by a party who had notice of the action, or by a caveator who was given notice under sub-rule 13 of this rule, shall cease to have effect.
- (15) Except with the leave of the Judge, no further caveat may be entered by or no behalf of any caveator whose caveat has ceased to have effect under sub-rule 12 or 14 of this rule.

72. (1) Notices in the nature of citation shall be given in such manner as the judge directs.

- (2) Every citation shall be settled by the Registrar before being issued.
- (3) Every averment in a citation and such other information as the registrar may require shall be verified by an affidavit sworn to by the person issuing the citation in this Order called "the citor" or, if there are two or more citors, by one of them;

Provided that the registrar may in special circumstances accept an affidavit sworn to by the citor's Legal Practitioner.

- (4) The citor shall enter a caveat before issuing a citation.
- (5) Every citation shall be served personally on the person cited unless the Judge, on cause shown by affidavit, directs some other mode of service, which may include notice by advertisement.
- (6) Every Will referred to in a citation shall be lodge in the Registry before the citation is issued, except where the Will is not in the citor's possession and the Judge is satisfied that it is impracticable to require to be lodged.
- (7) A person who has been cited to appear may, within 8 days of service of the citation upon him inclusive of the day of such service, or at time thereafter if no application has been made by the citor under sub-rule 5 of rule 35 or sub-rule 2 of Rule 69 of this Order enter an appearance in the Registry by filing form 6 and making an entry in the appropriate book, and shall thereafter serve on the citor a copy of Form 5 sealed with the seal of the Registry.

73 (1) A citation to accept or refuse a grant may be issued at the instance of any person who would himself be entitled to a grant in the event of the person cited renouncing his right thereto.

- (2) Where power to make a grant to an executor has been reserved, a citation calling on him to accept or refuse a grant may be issued at the instance of the executors who have proved the Will or the executors of the last survivor of deceased executors who have proved.
- (3) A citation calling on an executor who has intermeddled in the estate of the deceased to show cause why he should not be ordered to take a grant may be issued at the instance of any person interested in the estate at any time after the expiration of 6 months from the death of the deceased;

Provided that no citation to take a grant shall issue while proceedings as to the validity of the Will are pending.

- (4) A person cited who is willing to accept or take a grant may apply ex parte to the Judge for an order for a grant on filing an affidavit showing that he has entered an appearance and that he has not been served by the citor with notice of any application for a grant to himself.
- (5) If the time limited for appearance has expired and the person cited has not entered an appearance, the citor may;
 - (a) in the case of a citation under sub-rule 1 of this rule apply to the Judge for an order for a grant to himself;
 - (b) in the case of a citation under sub-rule 2 of this rule, apply to the Judge for an order that a note be made on the grant that the executor in respect of whom power was reserved has been duly cited and has not appeared and that all his rights and interest in respect thereof have ceased;
 - (c) in the case of a citation under sub-rule 3 of this rule, apply to the Judge by summons which shall be served on the person cited, for an order requiring such person to take a grant within a specified time or for a grant to himself or some other person specified in the summons.
- (6) An application under sub-rule 5 of this rule shall be supported by an affidavit showing that the citation was duly served and that the person cited has not entered an appearance.

- (7) If the person cited has entered an appearance but has not applied for a grant under sub-rule 4 of this rule, or has failed to prosecute his application with reasonable diligence, the citor may:
- (a) in the case of a citation under sub-rule 1 of this rule, apply by summons to the Judge for an order for a grant to himself;
 - (b) in the case of a citation under sub-rule 2 of this rule, apply by summons to the Judge for an order striking out the appearance and for the endorsement on the grant of such a note as is mentioned in paragraph (b) of sub-rule 5 of this rule;
 - (c) in the case of a citation under sub-rule 3 of this rule, apply by summons to the Judge for an order requiring the person cited to take a grant within a specified time or for a grant to himself or some other person specified in the summons;

and the summons shall be served on the person cited in each case.

74. (1) A citation to propound a Will shall be directed to the executors named in the Will and to all persons interested thereunder, and may be issued at the instance of any citor having any interest contrary to that of the executors or such other persons.
- (2) Where the time limited for appearance has expired, the citor may:
- (a) where no person cited has entered an appearance, apply to the Judge for an order for a grant as if the Will were invalid;
 - (b) in the case of a citation under sub-rule 2 of rule 73 of this order apply by summons to the registrar for an order striking out the appearance and for endorsement on the grant of such a note as mentioned in paragraph (b) of sub-rule 5 of rule 73 of this Order;
 - (c) in the case of a citation under sub-rule 3 of Rule 73 of this Order apply by summons to the Judge for an order requiring the person cited to take a grant within a specified time or for a grant himself or some other person specified in the summons;

and the summons shall be served on the person cited in each case.

75. All caveats, citations, warning and appearances shall contain an address for service within the jurisdiction.

76. (1) An application for an order requiring a person to bring in a Will or to attend for examination may, unless a probate action has been commenced, be made to the court by summons, which shall be served on every such person as aforesaid.
- (2) An application for the issue by the registrar of a subpoena to bring in a Will shall be supported by an affidavit setting out the grounds for the application, and if any person served with the subpoena denies that the Will in his possession or control he may file an affidavit to that effect.

77. An application for an order for a grant limited to part of an estate may be made to the Judge and shall be supported by an affidavit stating.

- (a) whether the application is made respect of real estate only or any part thereof, or real estate together with personal estate, or in respect of a trust estate only;
- (b) whether the estate of the deceased is known to be insolvent;
- (c) that the persons entitled to a grant in respect of the whole estate in priority to the applicant have been considered and excluded.

78. An application for an order for grant of administration where the goods in the estate are of perishable nature may be made to the Judge, and shall be supported by an affidavit setting out the grounds of the application.

79. An application for leave to swear to the death of a person in whose estate a grant is sought may be made to the Judge and shall be supported by an affidavit setting out the grounds of the application and containing particulars of any policies of insurance effected on the life presumed deceased.

80. (1) An application for an order admitting to proof a codicil or a Will contained in a copy, a completed draft, a reconstruction or other evidence of its contents where the original Will is not available may be made to the Judge;

Provided that where a will is not available owing to its being retained in the custody of a foreign court or official, a duly certified copy of the Will may be admitted to proof without any such order as aforesaid.

- (2) The application shall be supported by an affidavit setting out the grounds of the application and by such evidence on affidavit as the applicant can adduce as to;
 - (a) the due execution of the Will;
 - (b) its existence after the death of the testator; and
 - (c) the accuracy of the copy or other evidence of the contents of the Will, together with any consent in Writing to the application given by any person not under disability who would be prejudiced by the grant.
- 81. An application for an order for a grant of special administration where a personal representative is residing outside the state shall be made to the Judge by a motion.
- 82
 - (1) Where a surviving spouse who is the sole personal representative of the deceased is entitled to a life in part of the residuary estate and elects to have the life interest redeemed, he may give written notice of the election to the Registrar by filing a notice in Probate Form 7 with such variations as circumstances may require.
 - (2) A notice filed under this rule shall be notice on the grant and the record shall be open to inspection.
- 83.
 - (1) Where copies are required of original Wills or other documents deposited under the provisions of any written law such copies may be photocopies sealed with the seal of the registry and issued as office copies and where such office copies are available copies certified under the hand of a registrar to be true copies shall be issued only if it is required that the seal of the court be affixed thereto
 - (2) copies, not being photocopies of original Wills or other documents deposited as aforesaid shall be examined against the documents of which they purport to be copies if so required by the person demanding the copy, and in such case the copy shall be certified under the hand of a Registrar to be a true copy and may in addition be sealed with the seal of the court.
- 84. The Registrar may require any application under this order to be made by motion or summons to a Judge.
- 85
 - (1) A Judge of the Registrar may direct that a notice of motion or summons for the service of which no other provision is made in this Order shall be served on such person or persons as the Judge .
 - (2) Where by the provisions of this Order or by any direction given under sub-rule 1 of this rule a notice of motion or summons is required to be served on any person, it shall be served not less than 5 days, before the hearing of the motion or summons.
- 86. Unless the Judge otherwise directs or this Order provides any notice or other documents required to be given or served on any person may be given or served by leaving it at, or by sending it by courier to that person's address for service or if he has no address for service, his last known address.
- 87. Every affidavit used in non-contentious probate business shall satisfy the requirements of Order 33.
- 88. The provisions of Order 44 shall apply to the computation, enlargement and abridgement of time under this order.
- 89. Subject in any particular case to any direction given by a Judge, this order shall apply to any proceeding which is pending on the date on which these rules come into operation as well as to any proceeding commenced on or after that date;

Provided that where the deceased died before the commencement of these rules, the right to a grant shall, subject to the provisions of any enactment, be determined by the principles and rules in accordance with which the court would have acted at the date of the death.
- 90. Suit in respect of probate shall be instituted and carried on as nearly as possible in the like manner and subject to the same rules of procedure as suit in respect of civil claims.

III proceeding generally

- 91. In probate actions, the originating process shall state whether the claimant claims as creditor, executor, administrator, beneficiary, next of kin or in any other capacity.

92. In probate actions service of a writ of summons may by leave of a judge be allowed out of Nigeria.
93. In probate actions a party shall state with regard to every defence which is pleaded, what is the substance of the case on which it is intended to rely; and further where it is pleaded that the testator was not of sound mind, memory and understanding, particulars of any specific instances of delusion shall be delivered before the case is set down for trial and except by leave of a judge no evidence shall be given of any other instances at the trial.
94. In probate actions where the claimant disputes the interest of the defendant, he shall allege in his statement of claim that he denies the defendant's interest.
95. In probate actions the party opposing a Will may, with his defence, given notice to the party setting up the Will that he merely insist upon the Will being proved in solemn form of law and only intends to cross-examine the witnesses produced in support of the Will, and he shall thereupon be at liberty to do so and shall not in any event be liable to pay the costs of the other side unless the judge finds that there was no reasonable ground for opposing the Will.
96. Every judgment or order for a general account of the personal estate of a testator or intestate shall contain a direction for any inquiry as to what parts (if any) of such personal estate are outstanding or undisposed of, unless the court or a judge shall otherwise direct.
97. Where a person is or has been a party to any proceedings in the capacity of trustee, personal representative or mortgagee, he shall, unless the court otherwise orders be entitled to the costs of such proceedings in so far as they are not recovered from or paid by any other person out of the fund held by the trustee or personal representative or the mortgaged property, as the case may be; and the court may otherwise order only on the ground that the trustee, personal representative or mortgagee has acted unreasonably or, in the case of a trustee or personal representative, has in substance acted for his benefit rather than for the benefit of the fund
98. The executors or administrators of a deceased person or any of them, and the trustees under any deed or instrument or any of them, and any person claiming to be interested in the relief sought as creditor, beneficiary, next of kin, heir-at-law of a deceased person, or as cestui que trust under the trust of any deed or instrument, or as claiming by assignment or administration otherwise under any such creditor or other person as aforesaid, may take out, an originating summons for such relief as listed hereunder as may be specified by the summons and as the circumstances of the case may require; that is, the determination without an administration of the estate or trust of any of the following questions or matters;
